Stewardship Matters

We are Family

On this day we honor the Holy Family. We are all born, married, or adopted into families. We belong to the family of faith through baptism and to the larger human family. Recently, a story was reported about a woman in England. She was retired and lived alone. She regularly attended Mass, but was not involved in parish life. According to her only friend, this lady had no family left. She spent all her time shopping. Neighbors who saw her come and go finally noticed her car had not been moved in days and reported it to police. Investigating officers discovered a house packed with "stuff." It took them two days to find the lady in a bedroom, where heavy boxes had fallen on her and killed her. We all know people who are without family support. Some are outgoing and have friends. Others, particularly the frail and elderly, are shy or fearful of bothering anyone. Isolation can have fearful consequences. Don't let it happen if you can help it.

Living Stewardship Now

If you know someone who is elderly, frail, and isolated, find ways to be a presence and a support. Drop a greeting card in the mail. Make a "How are you?" phone call. Go by with home-made goodies. Offer to run errands or drive to doctor visits or church. Take the family over and do yard work or other chores.

Somos Un Familia

Hoy honramos a la Sagrada Familia. Todos pertenecemos a una familia, bien por nacimiento, bien por matrimonio o adopción. Pertenecemos a la familia de fe por el bautismo y también a la gran familia humana. Recientemente se reportó una historia acerca de una mujer en Inglaterra, que estaba jubilada y vivía sola. Iba a Misa con regularidad, pero no participaba en la vida parroquial. Según su única amiga, a esta señora no le quedaba ninguna familia. Todo el tiempo se lo pasaba de compras. Los vecinos que veían su ir y venir cayeron un día en la cuenta de que el carro no se había movido en varios días y llamaron a la policía. Los oficiales que vinieron a investigar hallaron una casa abarrotada de "cosas". Les tomó dos días encontrar a la mujer en un cuarto bajo unas cajas pesadas que la mataron al caerle encima. Todos conocemos a personas que carecen de ayuda familiar. Algunas hacen amistades fácilmente. Otras, particularmente las frágiles y de edad avanzada, se retraen pues temen molestar a los demás. El aislamiento puede tener consecuencias terribles. Si estás en condiciones de ayudar, no permitas que eso suceda.

La corresponsabilidad vivida ahora

Si conoces a alguna persona de edad avanzada, frágil y aislada busca maneras de hacerte presente y prestarle ayuda. Envíale una tarjeta por correo. Interéstate por ella con una llamada telefónica. Llévale alguna golosina. Ofrécele hacerle algún mandado, llevarla al doctor o a la iglesia. Visítala con tu familia, arréglale un poco el jardín o ayúdala con alguna tarea doméstica.

The Blessing We Receive

The blessing we experience in Christ Jesus is proclaimed in Numbers as the special blessing for the people of Israel. They and we are to be blessed by the invocation of God’s loving kindness, the shining glory of God’s face turned toward us in love, not away from us in anger. We are blessed by God’s own peace!

Our wish and our hope are fulfilled in this blessing, which is made visible in the coming of Jesus. In Jesus, the image of the invisible God, God’s face is shown to us and God’s presence is made known to us in faithful and loving kindness. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

On this feast, we can see how devotion to Mary has been a beacon of hope to the sick throughout history. In the new cathedral of Los Angeles, the faithful enter through a single door topped by a striking sculpture of Mary with arms stretched down in compassion. Sculpted into the massive bronze doors are the titles of Mary most treasured by various cultures. Many of them speak of how the sick are consoled by a sense of Mary’s presence.

Dorothy Day once recalled St. Bonaventure’s remark that after the Lord’s long forty days of fasting in the desert, when he was diminished and weak from his struggle, the angels who ministered to him went first to the Blessed Mother’s house. There they saw the soup that was on her stove, and took some to the Lord so that he would delight in it even more since his mother had prepared it. “Of course,” said Dorothy Day matter-of-factly.

In praying the rosary and savoring the stories of Mary’s steadfast love in the face of all suffering, the sick are strengthened by one of our tradition’s most shining treasures, and the whole Church is enriched. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

La Bendición Que Recibimos

La bendición que experimentamos en Cristo Jesús es proclamada en Números como una bendición especial para el pueblo de Israel. Ellos y nosotros seremos bendecidos por la invocación de la misericordia de Dios, la gloria resplandeciente de su rostro que nos mira con amor y no se aleja de nosotros con ira. ¡Hemos sido bendecidos por la paz de Dios!

Nuestro deseo y nuestra esperanza se cumplen en esta bendición, que se hace visible en la venida de Jesús. En Jesús, la imagen del Dios invisible, se nos muestra su rostro y su presencia se nos da a conocer en la bondad amorosa y fiel. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

¡Año nuevo, vida nueva! El día primero de enero, mientras muchos celebran las cábalas y cabañuelas de un año nuevo, los cristianos conmemoramos a quien dio a luz al autor de la vida. María, bajo el título de Madre de Dios, es como nosotros deseamos celebrar la esperanza de un año nuevo, vida nueva!

El Concilio de Éfeso en el año 431 declaró a María como la Theotokos; la que “carga a Dios”. Este dogma tiene que ver más con el Hijo que con la madre y fue proclamado para afirmar que Jesucristo “desde toda la eternidad fue Dios”. Continúa la doctrina y afirma “Así como toda madre humana, no es solamente madre del cuerpo humano sino de la persona, así María dio a luz a una persona, Jesucristo, quien es Dios y hombre, entonces Ella es la Madre de Dios”.

¡Ésta sí que es vida nueva! Dios nace como ser humano y el ser humano carga a Dios. Gracias a Dios, todo ser humano puede ser como María Theotokos y cargar a Dios en su corazón. ¡Feliz Año Nuevo! — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gilz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The Gift of Forgetting at Christmas

There is something about a new baby entering the picture that changes the landscape. Regardless of how rich or how poor, what culture the baby is born into, or the social class of the new child, change happens. Life will never be the same. And it is universally recognized.

This fact that life will never be the same is the ultimate gift of a new child. And the gift this child brings is the gift of forgetfulness. A new child is born and one forgets how important they are. One forgets that the world revolves around them. One forgets one's self.

In life's journey it's so easy to forget what's really important and chase after or be concerned with what in reality is minor. Ask any person or group of people and a common theme will quickly be discovered. "Yea, I use to think this was important..., I can't believe I use to think like that..., I can't believe that I saw life like that."

But a child is born and one forgets how important that child is. One remembers that life is more about the here and now. That life is more about obtaining this object or this status. That little baby is born and one recalls what it's all about. Pulled out of themselves and into a new world..., this is the gift of Christmas and this is the gift of a baby Christ child.

Introducing the EDGE – St. Teresa's New Youth Program

This fall we have 16 teens (7th, 8th and 9th graders) participating in the EDGE: a fun-filled youth group experience which includes confirmation preparation, learning practical life skills and community service. We meet most Sunday evenings from 7:00-8:30 pm in the Religious Education Center. Our first semester we have been learning about the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and how we can apply them to our lives.

The EDGE is designed to meet the educational, spiritual, emotional, and social needs of young adolescents. At this age youth are open to good and bad behaviors as well as positive and negative ideas. Many of the values and beliefs that they held as children are now questioned and challenged. As young adolescents they are trying to figure out who they are and what they believe. In many respects middle school kids are on the edge because so much is going on in their lives physically, mentally, spiritually, and socially. It can be a very stressful and difficult time for them and their parents. As a Catholic Community, we are going to give our middle school youth The EDGE they need in life: God's love that is made known to us through Jesus, The Word, The Eucharist, and the Church.

The How of Mary

Today we celebrate the motherhood of Mary. All motherhood is worthy of celebrating, but mothering the Son of God is an amazing, almost idolatrous idea. How could anyone actually mother God?

Well, to understand the whole of this story, we have to go back to the very beginning, back to the Garden of Eden.

Kabbalah, that ancient well-spring of Jewish mysticism, teaches that there are four levels of biblical understanding: literal, symbolic, allegorical and mystical. The earliest Christian theologians also taught this fourfold way of approaching scripture. Let's use it to get to the bottom of the biblical story of Eden.

On the first, or literal, level, God placed the first couple in a garden and commanded: "Don't eat that fruit!" Eve disobeyed, and evil entered the world.

This story was not the only myth to explain the presence of evil in a good world. The Greeks told of Pandora, whom the gods commanded: "Don't open that box!" She did, and all kinds of evil spilled out into the world.

Instead of blaming Eve and Pandora, maybe we should thank them for moving the story along. It's like that innocent little girl in a horror movie approaching a dark, scary door. We shout, "Don't open that door!" But we really hope she does; otherwise there is no more movie.

On the second, or symbolic, level, perhaps Eve represents the spiritual, creative, compassionate side of humankind (the "feminine") while Adam represents the material, ordered, justice side of humankind (the "masculine"). Together, feminine and masculine traits symbolize the divine human experience of the world. They demonstrate God's infinite capacity for assimilating the total human condition.

On the third, or allegorical, level, we realize that each of us includes both feminine and masculine characteristics. Each of us has a creative, intuitive, nurturing side along with a structured, rational, practical side. The tension between the two calls for blame while at the same time it encourages development. Just as Eve moved the human project forward by creating tension with God.

Instead of blaming Pandora and Eve, maybe we should thank them for moving the story along.

On the fourth, or mystical, level, we see vaguely that Adam and Eve never were ... and that Adam and Eve always are. The garden never existed in time and space, yet now exists each time we make a moral decision. The deceitful serpent was not lying when he said that eating the fruit would make Adam and Eve like God, knowing good and evil.

God could have created humans to remain in an obedient, robotic state to tend a perfect, ever-blooming garden with no serpents. It would have been beautiful, but uncreative and inhuman.

But when the first human disobeyed, and tried to frustrate the divine scheme, she actually furthered God's design. By loosing evil in the world, Eve actually opened the window of the world wide to even more grace.

In the Greek story, when Pandora thought she had emptied the box, there still remained hope at the bottom. And when Eve let sickness loose in the world, she was promised a remedy. It came in the form of a little baby. But not just any baby. This baby had to be healthy enough to overcome all the evil in the world. To do that, he would have to be the Son of God. To be human, he would need a human mother. And that is how Mary got to be the Mother of God.
