Catholic Church

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 29, 2012

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.

— Psalm 95:6

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

Whose Authority?

Many door-to-door proselytizers have good intentions. They want to convert you to the “truth”—as they see it. They believe the Bible is the sole authority for the Christian faith. Some are taught that Catholics are prohibited from reading the Bible. However, not only do we have full access to the scriptures, we hear them proclaimed every time we celebrate Mass. In today’s readings Jesus and Moses are recognized as speaking and acting with the authority of God. Both Jesus and Moses acted as a bridge between the people and God. For us the scriptures are a bridge for God’s truth, but so are the sacraments and the experience of the Church—what we call Tradition. It is part of our responsibility as Jesus’ disciples to listen attentively at Mass, to read scripture prayerfully for ourselves, and to learn more about the Bible through reading, studying, and learning with others.

Living Stewardship Now

Join a scripture study group in your parish to listen more responsibly. Your parish doesn’t have a group? Start one. You need not be a scholar or an expert to begin.

¿Con Qué Autoridad?

Muchos proselitistas que van de puerta en puerta tienen buenas intenciones: quieren convertirte a la “verdad”, tal como ellos la ven. Ellos creen que la Biblia es la única autoridad para la fe cristiana. A algunos de ellos se les ha enseñado que a los católicos les está prohibido leer la Biblia. Sin embargo, no sólo tenemos nosotros acceso a las Escrituras, sino que también las escuchamos cada vez que se proclaman las lecturas en la celebración de la Misa. Las lecturas de hoy reconocen que Jesús y Moisés hablan y actúan con una autoridad que viene de Dios. Tanto Jesús como Moisés fueron puente entre el pueblo y Dios. Para nosotros las Escrituras son un puente que nos conduce a la verdad de Dios, pero también lo son los sacramentos y la experiencia de la Iglesia, a lo cual llamamos Tradición. Parte de nuestra responsabilidad como discípulos de Jesús es aprender de las Escrituras, esto es, escuchar atentamente durante la Misa, leer las Escrituras en una actitud orante, y aprender más acerca de la Biblia mediante la lectura, y el estudio individual y grupal.

La corresponsabilidad vivida ahora

Únete a un grupo de estudio bíblico en tu parroquia para escuchar las Escrituras con más responsabilidad. ¿No tiene tu parroquia un grupo bíblico? Empieza uno. No necesitas ser un experto en las Escrituras para comenzar.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Moses spoke to all the people, saying: “A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you” (Deuteronomy 18:15-20).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties (1 Corinthians 7:32-35).

Gospel — The people were astonished at Jesus' teaching (Mark 1:21-28).

Jesus taught with authority

False Prophets, True Prophets

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous.

We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Forty days after Christmas, this week's ancient feast of the Presentation of the Lord is an extension of the shining days of Christ's coming into the depths of winter. This is the day when, for a thousand years, the Church has blessed a year's supply of candles. In many places, a procession forms outside the church. The core memory is of Simeon and Anna's meeting with the infant Jesus and his parents outside the temple on the fortieth day after the child's birth, and the delight of going to the table of the Lord for the Eucharist, a foretaste of our final meeting with Christ.

For some Christians, today is known as “The Meeting,” suggesting not only the encounter in the temple, but also our assembly at the Lord's table and our longing for the kingdom. One story suggests that the commotion made by so many candle-bearing, hymn-singing faithful in the wintry fields of Germany on their joyful way to Mass stirred the badger from hibernation to examine this promise of springtime. The interrupted nap of the groundhog is amazingly linked to the light of Christ driving away the shadows of the world's darkness. This beautiful feast only rarely falls on a Sunday. What better reason could there be for candles at dinner tonight? — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Falsos Profetas, Verdaderos Profetas

Jesús enseñaba con autoridad

Hoy nos enteramos en Deuteronomio de que las palabras de Dios llenarán la boca de un profeta verdadero, pero un profeta falso, en cierto modo, pone meras palabras mortales en boca de Dios. En el Evangelio según San Marcos, vemos las enseñanzas de Jesús y la curación como obra de un verdadero profeta, uno lleno de la autoridad de la propia voz de Dios, el Santo de Dios.

La historia de nuestra Iglesia está llena de profetas, verdaderos y falsos. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy nos enteramos de que la fama de Jesús se extendió porque enseñaba con autoridad; su autoridad no procedía de que Él fuera popular o famoso. También aprendemos de Él, en sus enfrentamientos en el desierto cuando fue tentado por Satanás, que cualquiera puede citar la Sagrada Escritura, incluso en contra de los propósitos de Dios. Y hoy nos enteramos de que su autoridad no era como la de los escribas, que ocupaban los cargos oficiales de autoridad religiosa en aquella época. Nuestro trabajo consiste en hacer nuestro mejor esfuerzo para discernir los verdaderos profetas que hay en medio de nosotros, y también nosotros mismos ser verdaderos profetas. El salmista nos dice cómo hacerlo: no endurecer nuestro corazón cuando Dios habla. Si de verdad escuchamos a Dios, serán Sus palabras Dios las que llenarán nuestra boca. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

El día 2 de febrero se celebrará la Candelaria. En este día se conmemora la purificación de María, cuarenta días después de que dio a luz a Jesús. Candelaria viene del verbo latín candere (brillar), de allí la palabra candela, o sea, veladora. La celebración de la Purificación de María y la Presentación del Niño Jesús en el templo se conmemora con la bendición de todas las velas y veladoras que se van a usar durante el año. Esto se hace con la esperanza de que nunca venga a faltar la luz, tanto material como espiritual, en las casas de los fieles. Los cristianos, como Simeón en el templo, pueden decir que ellos también han visto la salvación; Jesús la verdadera luz que brilla en brazos de María.

En Puerto Rico tradicionalmente esta fiesta se celebra con la quemazón de los árboles de navidad, basura, palos, cosas viejas, etc. Esta costumbre subraya el deseo de dejar atrás todo lo malo para que llegue lo bueno; es decir terminar con la oscuridad para que brille la luz. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Lecturas de hoy

Primera lectura — Moisés le habló a todo el pueblo diciendo: “El Señor Dios hará surgir en medio de ustedes un profeta como yo” (Deuteronomio 18:15-20).

Salmo — Ojalá escuchen hoy su voz; no endurezcan sus corazones (Salmo 95 [94]).

Segunda lectura — Hermanos y hermanas: Yo quisiera que ustedes vivieran sin preocupaciones (1 Corintios 7:32-35).

Evangelio — Los oyentes quedaron asombrados de sus palabras, pues enseñaba como quien tiene autoridad (Marcos 1:21-28).

Living in the Desert

On January 17th we as the Church celebrated the feast of Abbot Anthony. Anthony was born in Egypt around the year 250 and lived to the ripe old age of over 105; he is considered the Father of Monks. Convinced of his calling at a fairly young age, Anthony distributed his wealth to the poor and went into the desert to live out a life dedicated to God.

Like most of the colorful characters in Church history, people were attracted to Anthony and followed him into the desert. Some of these followers are revered by the church today. Even though we don't hear much about them, they offer to us a rich perspective about spirituality.

In Anthony's day, people did in fact go out to live in the desert. They went into the desert to fast, to learn to pray, to pray and to become one with God.

For us the desert is a different place. The desert can be a broken relationship or a prolonged state of unemployment. The desert can be a childless couple longing for a family, a terminal illness longing for healing, or the death of a loved one longing for peace.

What Anthony has taught us is that God calls us to wholeness and union through the desert. All of our expectations, presumptions and comparisons that get in the way of our relationship with God and of us becoming who God has created us to become, are stripped away from us in the desert. Like Christ on the cross, in the desert we become naked, emptied before God so as to become one with God. This is where our healing and peace reside –where our true healing and peace rest– in and through the desert.

Women's Spirituality in January

On Tuesday, January 31st at 7:30 pm., women of St. Teresa's who seek spiritual nourishment and an opportunity for quiet prayer, reflection and conversation are invited to gather in Avila Place. We meet monthly, September through May, generally on the last Tuesday of the month. In January, one of our group will gather us in prayer and share reflections on her recent two-week volunteer experience in South Sudan. Hope you can join us. Contact Cathy Flaherty, (773) 472-8456, with any questions.

Need a New Perspective for the New Year?

It's not too late to register for a new outlook on 2012. Whether you're thinking about how to get involved or already are an active parish leader, join us as we worship, learn and gather for the 2012 Parish Leadership Day, February 18th at Loyola Academy in Wilmette.

Parish leaders can hone their skills and be inspired to become more effective in their respective ministries at Parish Leadership Day. Attendees can choose from among more than 100 workshops, have lunch with Cardinal George, and network with parish leaders from throughout the greater metropolitan area. To browse through the workshop offerings, visit online at www.archchicago.org/departments/councils and click on Parish Leadership Day.

For more information or to register, contact Tom Kinsella at t.kinsella@sbcglobal.net by February 10th to register with the St. Teresa Parish Group.

9:00am Hospitality Hosts Needed

Did you know that this fellowship after the 9:00 am Mass is hosted by St. Teresa parishioners? Each week, someone makes coffee, sets out the treats and cleans up afterward.

Lina Hilko has just taken over the host scheduling from Marilyn Aleide, who is stepping down after three years of this important work. Lina is looking for new parishioners willing to help as hosts. This is a service opportunity which gives you flexibility -- you can do it twice a year, once a month or anything in between, whatever works for you.

If you're interested in learning more, please write down your e-mail address on the signup sheet at the refreshment table after Mass or talk to Lina or Dave Hilko.

The Cardinal's New Question

Ken Jaszcior and Tom Kinsella are the St. Teresa of Avila Parish representatives to our Deanery, the organizational level between the Archdiocese and the Parish. They have been tasked to obtain your ideas, concerns and suggestions. Specifically, Cardinal George is seeking your help to develop concrete actions to address the problems facing our community of faith. We will be presented with several issues to consider throughout the year.

Please take time to pray over and consider the current question:

“What specific things can Parishes do to make the Sunday Mass a living encounter with the Risen Christ?”

Ken and Tom are to present our Parish suggestions in the next Deanery meeting in January. Please provide your suggestions and ideas by speaking to them directly or using the specially marked collection container to deposit your written ideas.
