

St. Teresa
of Avila
Catholic Church

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 19, 2012

It is I, I, who wipe out, for my own sake, your offenses;
your sins I remember no more.

— Isaiah 43:25

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

Stewardship Matters

Sharing the Surplus

The Miller family has operated its farm in Colorado since 1949. They have worked hard to keep their farm viable through very tough times.

Today they raise vegetables to sell at local farmers' markets. But not long ago, the Millers got a huge surprise when they opened the farm for free gleaning—the ancient practice of picking up leftover food in fields after the harvest—and forty thousand people showed up in eleven thousand vehicles to collect free potatoes, carrots, and leeks.

About thirty acres of the six-hundred-acre farm became a parking lot. The Millers' fields were picked so clean on one Saturday that their plans for a second day had to be cancelled. "To say we were overwhelmed is putting it mildly," Chris Miller told local reporters. "People obviously need food." Altogether, she said that around 600,000 pounds of produce had been gleaned from the fields in that one day.

Living Stewardship Now

Take a good look at what surpluses you are hanging on to. What is in closets or boxes you never open? Begin with one closet or one box at a time and divide the contents into what you need, what you can give away, and what you can put in the trash. Dispose appropriately. Then go on to the next one and do the same.

Un Exceso Compartido

La familia Miller ha tenido y administrado su granja en Colorado desde 1949. Ellos han trabajado muy duro para mantener su granja a flote durante tiempos bien difíciles. Actualmente cultivan vegetales para venderlos a los mercados locales. Pero no hace mucho la familia Miller recibió una gran sorpresa cuando se le aparecieron cuarenta mil personas en once mil vehículos el día que abrieron las puertas de su rancho, siguiendo una costumbre antigua, para que el público viniera a recoger gratuitamente lo que había quedado de la cosecha de papas, zanahorias y puerros. Cerca de treinta de los seiscientos acres de la granja se convirtieron en estacionamiento. Los terrenos de la granja de la familia Miller se quedaron tan limpios ese sábado que tuvieron que cancelar sus planes de abrir un segundo día. "Nos quedamos cortos si decimos que fue un día asombroso. Obviamente hay personas que necesitan alimento", le dijo Cristina Miller a un reportero local. Dijo también ella que en total se habían recogido alrededor de 600,000 libras de hortalizas en un solo día.

La corresponsabilidad vivida ahora

Fíjate bien en todo lo que te sobra. ¿Qué hay en tus armarios o en esos cajones que nunca abres? Empieza por un armario o un cajón a la vez y divide su contenido en tres pilas: lo que necesitas en una, lo que vas a dar en otra y lo que vas a echar a la basura en la tercera. Puedes deshacerte de todo apropiadamente. Después haz lo mismo con el próximo armario o cajón.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! (Isaiah 43:18-19, 21-22, 24b-25)

Psalm — Lord, heal my soul, for I have sinned against you (Psalm 41).

Second Reading — God has given the Spirit in our hearts as a first installment (2 Corinthians 1:18-22).

Gospel — They were all astounded and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this” (Mark 2:1-12).

Forgiveness of Sins

Isaiah announced the word of the Lord: “[S]ee, I am doing something new!” (Isaiah 43:19). And what was this new thing? A promise for a people who “did not call upon me” and “grew weary of me” (43:22); a promise of forgiveness. “It is I, I, who wipe out . . . your offenses; / your sins I remember no more” (43:25).

Paul told the Corinthians—and tells us—that Jesus is God’s “yes,” and that all God’s promises are fulfilled in Jesus. Does that include God’s promise to forgive sins? Mark gives the answer when he relates how some people lowered a paralytic through a hole in the roof, seeking a cure.

As far as we can tell, no one requested forgiving the man’s sins. But that’s what Jesus did, exactly as Isaiah had announced. Then, lest anyone doubt his authority on earth to forgive sins, Jesus said, “[P]ick up your mat, and go home” (Mark 2:11). The man “rose, picked up his mat at once, and went away” (2:12). — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Thursday: Dt 30:15-20; Lk 9:22-25
Friday: Is 58:1-9a; Mt 9:14-15
Saturday: Is 58:9b-14; Lk 5:27-32
Sunday: Gn 9:8-15; Ps 25; 1 Pt 3:18-22; Mk 1:12-15

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today, in the streets of Rio and New Orleans and in the canals of Venice, Carnival reaches its height. We stand on the brink of Lenten discipline and order, of sacrifice and prayer, and like a diver for pearls, we take a deep breath of life’s abundance before immersing ourselves. Literally “Good-bye to the Flesh,” these once were days for clearing out the barnyard and having one last good roast before turning to fish, to eggs and cheese and porridges. In some places, masks and disguises are worn as a reminder that all falsehood must be stripped away in Lent and our true identity as the baptized must prosper. In others, the green, purple, and gold beads tossed in playful salute have their origins not only in the gifts of the magi, but also entwine the liturgical colors of Ordinary Time, Lent, and Easter.

The message, sadly missed by many, is: embrace the Lenten journey, and find your life transformed. Dedicate the next few days to savoring life’s wonders, to the abundance of tables laden with great food and surrounded by the laughter of dear friends. Then, as you step forward to receive ashes on your brow, you will have already acquired a yearning for the renewing splash of Easter’s waters. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

El Perdón de los Pecados

Isaías anunció la palabra del Señor: “Yo voy a realizar algo nuevo” (Isaías 43:19). ¿Y qué era esta cosa nueva? Una promesa para un pueblo que “no me [ha] invocado” y que “me [cansó]” (43:22); una promesa de perdón. “Si he borrado tus... crímenes y no he querido acordarme de tus pecados” (43:25).

Pablo dijo a los corintios –y nos dice a nosotros– que Jesús es el “sí” de Dios, y que todas las promesas de Dios se cumplen en Jesús. ¿Incluye esto la promesa de Dios de perdonar los pecados? Marcos da la respuesta cuando relata cómo algunas personas bajaron a un parálítico a través de un agujero en el techo, en busca de curación.

Por lo que sabemos, nadie pidió que se le perdonaran los pecados al hombre. Pero eso es lo que Jesús hizo, tal y como había anunciado Isaías. Entonces, para que no quedara duda de su autoridad en la Tierra para perdonar los pecados, Jesús le dijo: “Recoge tu camilla y vete a tu casa” (Marcos 2:11). El hombre “se levantó inmediatamente, recogió su camilla y salió de allí” (2:12). – Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

La cuaresma tiene sus raíces en la preparación para el bautismo de adultos y en el arrepentimiento de pecadores públicos. Ambas se concentran en la conversión y en especial en los tres pilares de la misma. La cuaresma nos da la oportunidad de encontrarnos de manera fuerte y vital con estos tres pilares: ayunar, ayudar y orar. Éstas son las prácticas cuaresmales que la iglesia ha ido proclamando y practicando desde tiempos antiguos. Son prácticas que los cristianos deberíamos emplear todos los días de nuestra vida, pero con mayor fervor durante la cuaresma para poder celebrar dignamente las fiestas de la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

La conversión es un proceso por el cual regresamos a participar de la vida divina que recibimos en el bautismo. Dios Padre mandó a su Hijo para salvarnos. He allí el por qué, el ayuno, el altruismo y la oración es colaborar con Dios. Dios mismo colabora con nosotros derramando su Espíritu en nuestros corazones. Con el poder del Espíritu Santo podemos practicar el ayunar, ayudar y orar de manera vital. – Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Giz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Life Goes On: The Gift of Our Faith

Fairly regularly I like to hit a daily mass at St. Peter's in the loop. It is so convenient. The Franciscans there offer six masses a day. They typically are around thirty minutes in length. It is so easy and it is a nice break in the middle of the day or a nice way to end the work day before going home.

This past Valentine's Day I attended the 5:00pm mass at St. Peter's. I don't recall the priest's sermon. What I do remember was a little story the priest shared at the very end of mass. He told the assembly that on Valentine's Day he wears a certain pair of socks with hearts on them to remind him of a little girl.

Years back his father died on February 5th. He was at a parish that had a school and the second graders all made him Valentine cards. One little girl wrote him a card and drew a picture of a man in a coffin on the front of the card. On the front of the card was written "Dear Father, I am very sorry that your dad died. I am sure he was a very nice man." On the inside of the card was written "Oh well, Happy Valentine's Day."

The good Franciscan said, "Isn't that what's wonderful about our faith. Life goes on. We experience death, but it does not have the final word. The resurrection of our Lord is the final word. And life goes on."

One of my professors in graduate school once said, "You cannot learn to live until you learn to die." Life and death, in so many ways, it's all around me. But for me as a Christian, life goes on, and on, and on. It truly is a wonderful thing about the faith.

Refreshments Served

St. Teresa Parent-Baby Journey

We have a new group forming at St. Teresa, the PBJ - Parent-Baby Journey. Twice a month the group will meet to discuss an article or book designed around raising children in our very busy world. Subjects from how to recognize your baby's spiritual growth to eating food in a processed world will be topics of choice. Parents with children ages 0-3 are welcome to join us. For more information contact Erica Saccucci at esaccucci@gmail.com

Next Meeting: Friday, March 2nd @11am in the Religious Education Building Room 4. We'll be discussing a chapter from the book The Religious Potential of the Child, contact Erica for a copy.

Annual Catholic Appeal

Our faith is lived in schools and parishes, soup kitchens and counseling centers, on street corners and in churches, where people of all backgrounds in every neighborhood of the Archdiocese of Chicago are served.

Your gift to the Annual Appeal helps to sustain Catholic schools, religious education, ministerial formation, and initiatives for life, peace and justice. Through its support of Catholic Relief Services, the Appeal serves people worldwide, without regard for religious affiliation, whose lives are devastated by natural disasters, illnesses, wars and famines.

Please make a pledge to the 2012 Annual Catholic Appeal. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

Any funds raised are carefully spent; it is money for God's work, and we will use it accordingly. Your generosity will make a difference in the lives of many.

2012 Operation Rice Bowl – We're Invited

This Lent, the faith community of St. Teresa of Avila will be joining millions of Catholics across the country by participating in CRS' Operation Rice Bowl. Your family is invited to pick up a Rice Bowl packet in the back of church and join in this simple yet powerful Lenten practice.

Catholic Relief Services' Operation Rice Bowl invites us to pray with our families and faith communities, fast in solidarity with those who are hungry, learn about our brothers and sisters around the world, and give sacrificial contributions to help those in need. Visit orb.crs.org for additional resources to use at home.

The Cardinal's New Question

Ken Jaszczor and Tom Kinsella are the St. Teresa of Avila Parish representatives to our Deanery, the organizational level between the Archdiocese and the Parish. They have been tasked to obtain your ideas, concerns and suggestions. Specifically, Cardinal George is seeking your help to develop concrete actions to address the problems facing our community of faith. We will be presented with several issues to consider throughout the year.

Please take time to pray over and consider the current question:

“What specific things can Parishes do to make the Sunday Mass a living encounter with the Risen Christ?”

Ken and Tom are to present our Parish suggestions in the next Deanery meeting May. Please provide your suggestions and ideas by speaking to them directly or using the specially marked collection container to deposit your written ideas before February 25th.

Therapy for Everyone

People often think of utilizing therapy only when under severe distress. While therapy is extremely beneficial for those going through difficult times, whether due to a recent major life change or feeling unable to cope with depression or anxiety, it is also useful for dealing with day-to-day stressors. In our fast-paced lives, we sometimes forget to take care of our mental health and going to therapy before daily stressors become huge problems can be a proactive strategy for doing just that. Therapy can help with stress management, relationship challenges, parenting difficulties, or life transition issues. It can be a protective strategy to keep stress from turning into distress.

Melanie McNally is a licensed therapist, currently working with the Claret Center. She is available to meet with you weekdays, weeknights, and weekends in a private office at St. Teresa. Sliding scale is available. Call or email to schedule an appointment to protect your mental health. (773) 643-6259, ext. 38 or maxwellmelanie@yahoo.com
