Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Mistaken Identity

A man was tailgated in heavy traffic. Suddenly, the light turned yellow and he stopped. Who knows what was going on with the tailgater, but she hit the ceiling and the horn, screaming and gesturing in frustration. A police officer suddenly appeared at her window, ordered her into his patrol car, and drove to the station, where she was processed and placed in a holding cell. After a couple of hours, she was escorted to the booking desk, where the arresting officer was waiting. He said, "I'm very sorry, ma'am. This is a big mistake. I pulled up behind you while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you, and cursing a blue streak. I noticed the 'Choose Life' license plate, the 'Follow me to Saint Dominic's' bumper sticker, and the rosary on the rear-view mirror. Naturally, I thought you'd stolen the car."

Living Stewardship Now

Saint Paul tells us in today's second reading, "Watch carefully how you live" (Ephesians 5:15). Does your public conduct match your beliefs? Do you leave your Christian behavior on the church doorstep?

Identidad Equivocada

En una calle de mucho tráfico un carro seguía muy de cerca al otro. Súbitamente la luz del semáforo se puso amarilla y el chofer del carro delante paró. Quién sabe en qué estaba pensando la mujer que conducía el carro de atrás, pero se puso muy enojada y tocó la bocina mientras gritaba y hacía gestos de frustración. De repente ella vio un oficial de policía que tocaba en su ventanilla ordenándola a entrar en el carro patrulla. Se la llevó a la estación y allí fue procesada y puesta en una celda. Después de un par de horas la escoltaron hacia el buró de arrestos donde estaba el policía que la había detenido, quien le dijo: "Por favor, acepte nuestras disculpas, señora. Todo esto ha sido una gran equivocación. Es que cuando la vi tocando desafortadamente su bocina, poniendo el grito en el cielo, maldiciendo e insultando al hombre del carro delante, me fijé que usted tenía en la matrícula de su carro un letrero de 'Opte por la vida', tenía también una calcomanía en la defensa que dice '¿Qué haría Jesús?' y otra que dice, 'Sígueme hasta la parroquia de santo Domingo', y además tenía un rosario colgando del espejo retrovisor. Naturalmente pensé que usted se había robado el carro".

La corresponsabilidad vivida ahora

San Pablo nos dice en la segunda lectura de hoy: "Tengan cuidado de [cómo] portarse" (Efesios 5:15). ¿Tu comportamiento público va de acuerdo con tus creencias? ¿Acaso dejas tu comportamiento cristiano a la salida de la iglesia?

Today's Readings

First Reading — Wisdom has built her house; she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine, yes, she has spread her table (Proverbs 9:1-6).

Psalm — Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — Be filled with the Spirit, giving thanks always and for everything (Ephesians 5:15-20).

Gospel — I am the living bread that came down from heaven (John 6:51-58).

We Share God's Life Now

Over the past few weeks, second readings at Sunday Mass have been taken from Paul's letter to the Ephesians. Paul has been providing an ongoing instruction on what it means to live and share God's life now. Paul was writing to people who lived in the midst of pagan activity. That is why Paul's words are still applicable to us. This is not to say that our world is monstrously evil, that nastiness surrounds us, or that everyone is out to get us. That's not true. What is true, however, is that times are tough. Our society pressures us to look out for ourselves, to take the best advantage we can, often without giving much thought to the other person. Paul also urges us to take the best advantage we can, but with constant regard for the other person. And the best advantage we can take is to remember that Christ is with us—is in us—now. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

This week we observe another Marian celebration, the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Its original date was May 31, when it was instituted by Pius XII in 1954, but it was eventually moved to August 22 so that its close relationship with the Assumption might be made clear. Mary's queenship is multi-dimensional: she reigns gloriously in heaven as queen and mother; she is the queen who intercedes; she is the sign of the Church in its future glory.

Of course, the traditions surrounding the Blessed Mother's queenship extend much further back than the establishment of this feast. In the eighth century St. John Damascene could write, "When she became Mother of the Creator, she truly became Queen of every creature." According to Jewish tradition, the mother of the king was accorded a seat of honor at the right of the king. With Jesus' royal heritage as a descendant and member of the house of David, Mary quite naturally takes her proper place as the queen mother. Pius XII simply recalled these traditions and gave us a day to remind us of how we can direct our prayers to Mary, our Queen. — James Field, Copyright ©

Nosotros Compartimos La Vida de Dios Ahora

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Durante las últimas semanas, la segunda lectura en la misa dominical se ha tomado de la Carta a los Efesios. Pablo ha estado proporcionando una instrucción continua sobre lo que significa vivir y compartir la vida de Dios ahora. El apóstol escribía a la gente que se hallaba en medio de la actividad pagana. Es por eso que las palabras de Pablo siguen siendo aplicables a nosotros. Esto no significa que nuestro mundo sea monstruosamente malo, que la maldad nos rodea o que todo el mundo quiere hacernos daño. Eso no es cierto. Lo cierto, sin embargo, es que los tiempos son difíciles. Nuestra sociedad nos presiona a cuidar de nuestros intereses, sacar la mayor ventaja que podamos, frecuentemente sin pensar mucho en la otra persona. Pablo también nos insta a sacar la mayor ventaja que podamos, pero siempre atentos a la otra persona. Y la mayor ventaja que podemos tomar es recordar que Cristo está con nosotros, está en nosotros, ahora. – Copyright ©

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Entre los varios santitos que de niño recuerdo haber visto en el templo, santa Rosa de Lima (1586-1617) se me ha quedado grabada por su belleza y humildad. No sé quién fue el que me la presentó por primera vez, sólo sé que la recuerdo porque era latina como yo. En su cabeza llevaba una corona de espinas de la cual brotaban rositas rojas. Según mis catequistas, ella había usado una corona de espinas a escondidas debajo de su velo de monja para recordarle que si era bella lo debía a Dios y no a sus propios méritos.

Santa Rosa (Isabel Flores de Oliva) fue canonizada en 1667 como la primera santa americana. Ella encarnaba la expresión “Gracias a Dios”. Esta frase la utilizan muchos latinos cuando reciben un cumplido o halago, para reconocer que sus talentos y virtudes se deben a Dios que bendice sus esfuerzos. Ellos, como Santa Rosa, aceptan las limitaciones de su condición humana pero también aceptan la gracia de ser hijas e hijos del Dios que siempre nos ayuda. – Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J. ## The Way

There's a movie out titled The Way starring Marti Sheen. It is based on a true story about an eye doctor that has to go to Europe in St. Jean Pied de Port to get his son who died while hiking the trail to Santiago de Compostela. Some of you may have heard about the trail to Santiago de Compostela. It is the same trail that our Pastor, Father Frank, is going to walk on his sabbatical.

I recently had the chance to walk a small piece of The Way this summer. I was in France during the month of July and my last two weeks I went on a camping trip with the Scouts de France. We were all split into teams of four or five people. We did a lot of backpacking through the Pyrenees. We even got to go on a trek with only our team for three days with no adults!

On the first day of our journey our team got lost and we ended up asking a nice French man for a ride. The second day we walked thirty kilometers, approximately twenty miles. It was the hardest hike we had to face. We walked from 7:30am to 6:00pm, up and down and up again through the mountains with our heavy backpacks, surviving off of only two pieces of brioche, a granola bar, and a cup of hot chocolate. By the end of the day, everything hurt.

The odd thing for me about walking The Way is that I didn't know was on The Way. I learned about the trail to Santiago de Compostela and the movie titled The Way from a waitress at a bar owned by a little Italian man named Jacques. This guy was quite the character, and his bar even made it in the movie.

Anyway, when I got back to the States I learned a lot more about the trail to Santiago de Compostela and The Way. For many us, our lives are like my hiking experience. We are all on a journey in life. There is the outward journey of accomplishing our life goals and there is the inward journey of our spirit. Our outward journey of our goals can be clearly mapped out and defined. Our inward journey of our spirit..., well, like I said, it is like my trip, I was on The Way and did not even realize it. .

Year of the Sunday Mass Demonstration Masses on August 26th

Catholics worship God in a variety of ways, but the chief act of corporate or communal worship is the Liturgy of the Eucharist known as the Mass, an ancient celebration and the central act of worship in the Catholic Church.

But how much do we really know about the order of the Mass and its meaning?

At all the Masses on Sunday, August 26th, Fr. Frank will explain what really happens in Mass and why it is so central to our Catholic Faith.

Becoming Christ

When Jesus said that he got his life from the Father, the crowd thought: “Of course you did. Everybody gets their life from the author of all life.” Since they knew Jesus as merely a man, they understood his statement on a merely human level.

You and I know that Jesus is also God, so we can delve much deeper into what he meant, right into the heart of the Blessed Trinity. God the Father speaks, and the Word comes into being, so to speak. (All of our God-talk is “so to speak.”) The Trinity is a set of relationships. The Father is a father only because he has a son, and the son is the Son only because he has a father. It is in this radical, absolute way that Jesus gets his life from the Father.

Jesus is also a man — and this life, like all life, comes from the Father. Jesus is the perfect expression of God in flesh.

God first conceived Jesus in God’s mind (so to speak) and then created other human beings in the image of Jesus. That makes Jesus the perfect human, the complete expression of God in matter. Which makes every other human an imperfect Jesus. You and I exist because Jesus exists. You and I literally get our life from him.

That is our physical life. Our spiritual life comes from the same source. As the Father transformed the Son’s divinity into the human Jesus, so Jesus transforms his humanity into bread and wine.

Our Western tradition is more moralistic, ethical, legal; while the Byzantine is more spiritual, prayerful, graceful.

One miracle is no more incredible than the other. But the purpose of that transformation, that transubstantiation really is unbelievable. St. Thomas Aquinas wrote this amazing sentence: “The proper effect of the Eucharist is to transform us into God.”

You and I pray at the offertory of every Mass: “By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.” We even dare to pray further at Mass: “Grant that we who are nourished with Christ’s body and blood may be filled with his Holy Spirit and become one body, one spirit in Christ.” Those are extravagant, incredible, impossible prayers. Except that they are guaranteed by Jesus himself.

This connection between Christ and us is possible because there are two transformations that occur at Mass. First is the transformation of bread and wine into Christ. Next is the more important transformation of us into Christ.

St. Paul put it in his usual graphic way: “I live in Christ and Christ lives in me.” To say that I live in Christ means that I live the way Christ lives. And to say that Christ lives in me means that Christ uses my actions, my thoughts, my life as a way for him to live in the world.

This high degree of correspondence between God and humans is not very familiar to Roman Catholics, even though it goes back to the first Christians. When the church split into Eastern and Western branches, we went a more rational route whereas the East continued the mystical way. Both are Catholic, both are true, but each brings out a different approach to the spiritual life. Our Western tradition is more moralistic, ethical, legal; while the Byzantine is more spiritual, prayerful, graceful.

Though St. Thomas was a Western moralist, he also valued the Eastern view of God. He wrote: “Since it is the will of God’s Son that people should share his divinity, he assumed human nature in order that by becoming a man, he might make people gods.”
