Catholic Church

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace.

— James 3:18

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Thank you!

I want to thank you all for the wonderful farewell reception as I prepare to leave for the Camino.

Special thanks to Carol, Brad and Tom and all the volunteers who cooked, baked, decorated and cleaned up. I can't tell you enough how grateful I am for your presence in my life and in my ministry. I hope to return filled with new hope and energy for our future.

On behalf of the people of St. Teresa I have presented the Society of Helpers with a financial contribution for their various ministries. This is my way of responding to the unfortunate investigations by certain leadership in Rome of our Sisters (nuns). I hope and pray for a peaceful resolution.

We also thank the many communities of Women Religious for building up the Catholic school system across the country and for their many ministries in the name of social justice. I want to remind everyone that the Helpers have been part of St. Teresa parish for many years and have supported us financially. And they have been wonderful to me as they have welcomed me into their home for dinner (I owe you dinner at my home).

As some of our leaders have seen the necessity of investigating our Sisters, I hope that they, themselves, will be open to our investigation as to how they are living the Gospel.

Peace,
Fr. Frank

Weekly Sunday Collections (Budget of $12,000)

We had a $3,525 deficit of our budgeted regular Sunday collections of $12,000 for the weekend of September 16, 2012. Please consider donating through automated contributions to ensure St. Teresa of Avila's well-being during these summer months of travel. Thank you for your ongoing generosity.

St. Teresa of Avila Preserving Our Heritage...

Please check the expiration dates on all food items before donating them; we discard anything past the expiration date. The Food Pantry needs larger, sturdy paper and plastic bags with handles. Please drop them off in the church, parish center or parish office.

If your family would like to sponsor a large amount of a particular item, please contact Dave Hilko at dahilko@aol.com.

The next Food Pantry Meeting is January 7, 2013 at 7:00 pm.

Comments & Concerns

We want to ensure that any questions or concerns are fully addressed. Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections and key issues.

The next Finance Council meeting will be held Monday, October 15, at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center.

Thanks to your generosity, St. Teresa's Preserving Our Heritage collection is up and running! So far $134,491 has been collected or pledged through automated contributions. We have $115,509 to go to reach our goal.

If you haven't donated already, we ask that you consider a generous gift, if you're able, to our special collection.

If you prefer to make automated contributions by credit card or bank account, please contact Erica Saccucci at esacucci@sttereseparish.org.

For those who have already answered the call to preserve our history, thank you! Your donations to Preserving Our Heritage will be shown on your end-of-year statement of contributions.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The wicked say: With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20).

Psalm — The Lord upholds my life (Psalm 54).

Second Reading — The wisdom from above is full of mercy and good fruits (James 3:16 — 4:3).

Gospel — Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me (Mark 9:30-37).

The Meaning of Discipleship

The geography of today's Gospel is significant. Jesus is completing his ministry in Galilee and beginning his journey to Jerusalem, where he will meet both death and resurrection. The prediction of his death placed here is the second of three in Mark's Gospel, and as usual it is the occasion for an important teaching on the part of Jesus. Today that lesson is tied to the need for his disciples to embrace a ministry of service. A play on words in Aramaic would have linked the words "child" and "servant," thus turning Jesus' gesture of placing a child in their midst into an illustration of his understanding of himself as the Servant of the Lord. It is that same awareness of the meaning of their ministry that Jesus (and Mark) wishes to instill in the disciples. Theirs must be a ministry of service if they are to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. And that service might even require of them that they be "handed over" to death. What would have been—in the culture of Jesus' day—an ordinary discussion of social status ("who is the greatest") becomes in Mark's context a key insight into the meaning of discipleship for the disciples and for us. — Copyright © J. Treasures from Our Tradition

On the Byzantine calendar, September 23 is the feast of the Conception of John the Baptist. The Roman and Byzantine calendars have in common the other equinox- or solstice-derived dates of solemnities: December 25, March 25, and June 24. Scholars see strong evidence in the writings of the early Church Fathers for the fixing of these dates from the imagined "anniversary" of Gabriel's appearance to Zechariah at Yom Kippur, which was thought to have coincided with the equinox as a day of "at-one-ment" between light and darkness. The spiritual writer Origen held to this date.

The annunciation to Zechariah then set the date six months later for Mary's conception of Jesus (March 25), and then, of course, for the dates of the births of John (June 24) and Jesus (December 25). Is this "liturgical trivia?" Perhaps. But it's also the best explanation we have for the dating of some of the most important festivals on our calendar. So even though the Roman Church doesn't observe the Conception of John the Baptist, yesterday's equinox can remind us of how our salvation history is closely attuned to God's creation. — James Field, Copyright © J. El Significado de Ser Discípulos

La geografía del Evangelio de hoy es importante. Jesús completa su ministerio en Galilea y comienza su viaje a Jerusalén, donde se encontrará con su muerte y resurrección. La predicción de su muerte que aparece aquí es la segunda de tres en el Evangelio según San Marcos, y como de costumbre, es ocasión para una enseñanza importante de parte de Jesús. Hoy esta lección está ligada a la necesidad de un ministerio de servicio. Un juego de palabras arameas vinculaban las palabras “niño” y “servidor”, y por eso el gesto de Jesús de tomar “a un niño [poniéndolo] en medio de ellos” indica cómo se veía a sí mismo: como el Siervo del Señor. Es esta misma conciencia del significado del ministerio que Jesús (y Marcos) desean inculcar en sus discípulos. El ministerio de ellos deberá ser de servicio para que puedan seguir las huellas de Jesús. Y ese servicio podría incluso requerir de ellos que se “entregaran” a la muerte. ¿Cuál habría sido, en la cultura del tiempo de Jesús, una conversación normal sobre el estatus social (“quién es el más importante”) se convierte para Marcos en una idea clave sobre el significado de qué es ser discípulos para sus seguidores de entonces y para nosotros. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Últimamente, hay mucho interés en los ángeles y sobre todo en los arcángeles. Según el catecismo católico, los ángeles existen para glorificar y servir a Dios y para ayudar con el plan salvífico de Jesucristo, cooperando con nuestras buenas obras. Lamentablemente muchos, en especial los de la New Age, se interesan sólo en los ángeles con el fin de utilizarlos en lugar de dejarse guiar por ellos.

La Tradición ha designado una jerarquía de 9 rangos entre los seres espirituales. Los serafines son los primeros y más cercanos a Dios y los ángeles son los últimos y más cercanos a la humanidad. En esta jerarquía, los arcángeles son los penúltimos en poder, aunque sí son los más buscados por su responsabilidad de cuidar los cuatro puntos cardinales de la creación. Según la tradición hebrea, hay siete arcángeles (Tobías 12:15), de los cuales las Sagradas Escrituras sólo mencionan tres por nombre, Miguel (¿Quién como Dios?), Gabriel (hombre de Dios) y Rafael (Dios sana). De estos, Miguel parece ser el más popular gracias a su poder contra el mal. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos —

Lecturas de hoy

Primera lectura — Los impíos dirán: Probemos y sometamos al justo (Sabiduría 2:12, 17-20).

Salmo — El Señor es quien me ayuda (Salmo 54 [53]).

Segunda lectura — Donde hay envidia y ambición habrá también inestabilidad y muchas cosas malas. (Santiago 3:16 — 4:3).

Evangelio — Jesús les advierte a sus discípulos que viene su pasión y resurrección, luego les enseña a tener humildad y sencillez como la de un niño (Marcos 9:30-37).

Trusting in the Divine Providence of God

What is it about some family gatherings, that when the family gets together, some family members act the way they did twenty or thirty years ago? They go digging in the dirt to bring up old issues that have never been fully resolved. Scratch an old wound. Or respond with a certain mean-spiritedness.

I recently had such an experience at a small family reunion. I will save the details. But these experiences run deep. They have the ability to divide my heart with a level of intensity. A driver yelling at me for a driving error I have made, a mildly obnoxious guy on the train, my own kids irritating me — these experiences really are quite minor and it is easy for me to get back into a positive frame of mind and living.

Some experiences, however, cut much deeper and can linger on for days. Such experiences have the ability to take me off center, keep me off center and just keep popping up in my head no matter how hard I try to forget about them. With these experiences, I really have to develop a hearty trust in the divine providence of God.

It is not enough for me to simply place the irritation or bad experience into God's hands. I have to build stamina, get past it, move beyond it, all with God's help of course. The deeper the cut, the greater the divide of the heart, the more effort to stay on track with a heart that is one with God; it all becomes a gift that invites me into a deeper relationship with God.

Help Bring Clean Water to Haiti Sponsor Fr. Frank as He Walks the Camino de Santiago

In this country, we take so many things for granted. It is difficult for us to imagine living our lives without sufficient clean water. When we want water, all we have to do is turn on the faucet.

Imagine a poor country like Haiti where 40 percent of its 10 million people do not have access to a dependable supply of clean water, where the walk to the faucet is an average of 5 miles away, walking an average of 10 miles per day for clean water.

Our goal is to raise $20,000 for Haiti; this money will be used to build wells to provide clean and accessible water. If we raise more than our goal of $20,000, that money will be used to provide healthcare for the people of Haiti.

All donations Fr. Frank raises through sponsorship of his pilgrimage will go to Zanmi Lasanté —Paris, a social justice agency who will have wells built in Haiti by Haitian labor and fund other education and development in impoverished rural Haiti.

You can help. Sponsor Fr. Frank and bring clean, accessible drinking water to those that need it. To donate go to the Give Central QR code on the right or visit st-teresa.net and follow the link. Or call the St. Teresa of Avila office at (773) 528-6650 for more information.
