Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Ways you can help this committee:

- Great auction items developing but we still need help. If you or someone you know are able to donate restaurant certificates, hotel stays, theater tickets and/or unique local experiences, please contact Laura Moran (laumoran@deloitte.com).
- Instant Wine Cellar is currently set up in the parish hall. Please bring your wine donation or if you're not a wine aficionado come by and grab a suggestion for a donation!
- As we get closer to the October 31st deadline we anticipate ticket sales will increase. Please contact Deirdre Anglin (itsmed@msn.com) if you are interested in processing orders for your fellow parishioners after Mass sometime.

Food Pantry News

We had two notable events in September. We expanded our food distribution to an additional Saturday. We had a very successful expansion – both from the number of clients and volunteers; we distributed over 140 bags of food on that day alone. Last Friday we also set a record for the number of bags of food distributed – over 210 bags. For September, we distributed over 670 bags of food. We are serving a need in the community and our clients are very grateful for our assistance.

As we add distributions we have begun to update our shopping lists. Our shopping list now includes rice (either box of brown rice or rice packets), oatmeal, and saltines or crackers. If you purchase soups, please make sure they are the heartier soups that include either vegetables or meat. We also need shopping bags with handles.

Our greatest need at this point is for assistance in shopping and bagging on Thursday. If you can help, please contact either Dave Hilko at dahilko@aol.com or Karen Breen Vogel at kbreenvogel@gmail.com. Also please continue to bring food in at Masses or contribute to the Social Outreach Fund. Contact Erica Saccucci about contributing to the Social Outreach Fund.

The food pantry schedule for October is:

- Saturday, October 6th 9:00 am to 11:00 am, Bagging & Distribution
- Thursday, October 11th 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm, Bagging
- Friday, October 12th 10:00 am to 12:00 pm, Distribution
- Saturday, October 20th 9:00 am to 11:00 am, Bagging & Distribution
- Thursday, October 25th 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm, Bagging
- Friday, October 26th 10:00 am to 12:00 pm, Distribution

We thank you for all you have done for our clients and look forward to continue to provide for the needs of our community.

Comments & Concerns

We want to ensure that any questions or concerns are fully addressed. Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections and key issues.

The next Finance Council meeting will be held Monday, October 15, at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center.

Weekly Collections Recap For September 30, 2012

We had a $4,890 deficit of our budgeted regular Sunday collections of $12,000 for the weekend of September 30, 2012. Please consider donating through automated contributions.

The St. Teresa Water-for-Haiti collection is $12,000 so far. See page nine of today's bulletin for more information.

St. Teresa of Avila Preserving Our Heritage...

Thanks to your generosity, St. Teresa's Preserving Our Heritage collection is up and running!

So far $134,871 has been collected or pledged through automated contributions. We have $115,129 to go to reach our goal.

If you haven't donated already, we ask that you consider a generous gift, if you're able, to our special collection.

If you prefer to make automated contributions by credit card or bank account, please contact Erica Saccucci at esacucci@stteresaparish.org.

For those who have already answered the call to preserve our history, thank you! Your donations to Preserving Our Heritage will be shown on your end-of-year statement of contributions.

The Barriers that Separate Us

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban. It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But—in truth—it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion. Today's readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God. And so we are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Using beads for prayer and meditation is an ancient custom, found in many cultures and religions. The Christian rosary dates from the twelfth century, when it provided a way for ordinary Christians to learn about the lives of Jesus and Mary. Alan de la Roche, a fifteenth-century Dominican, preferred “Psalter of Our Lady” to “rosary.” This fitting name recalls an explanation of the devotion's origin. Unable to read the one hundred fifty psalms that formed the Church's “official” daily prayer, medieval Christians substituted first one hundred fifty Pater Nosters, and later one hundred fifty Ave Marias. By meditating on the various mysteries of the rosary while repeating these simple prayers, the faithful could immerse themselves in the whole mystery of the Incarnation and the Resurrection.

The dedication of October to the Blessed Virgin Mary is an appropriate reminder of this venerable form of prayer. Faithful Christians everywhere continue to meditate on the mysteries of the rosary, praying in groups or alone. Why not take advantage of this season to renew your acquaintance with the rosary? — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Las Barreras Que Nos Separan

Vivimos en una sociedad que tiene muchas posibilidades tecnológicas para la estimulación y el entretenimiento, en que la población urbana supera la no urbana. Es curioso que la soledad sea un mal prevalente. Es fácil de alcanzar y tocar a alguien, se nos dice. Pero, en verdad, no es tan fácil, y las estadísticas de salud mental refuerzan esa opinión. Las lecturas de hoy son las formas en las que auténticamente podemos acercarnos a otros: Dios toca a Adán para crearle una compañera y poner fin a su soledad, Dios en Jesús asume forma humana y la muerte con el fin de que podamos llegar a la gloria; Jesús se acerca a los niños que los discípulos habían tratado de alejar, mostrándonos así cómo aceptar el abrazo amoroso que nos espera en el cielo. Hasta ese día, sin embargo, debemos recordar que la nuestra es una Iglesia sacramental, una Iglesia de signos del amor de Dios. Y así estamos llamados a acercarnos a otros continuamente para aliviar la soledad y derribar las barreras que nos separan unos de otros y, por tanto, del amor de Cristo. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Un viejo chiste relata que una ancianita por más que se apresuraba a llegar al templo, siempre llegaba tarde al rosario. Un día decidió adelantarse para ver por qué duraba tan poco tiempo el rezo del rosario. A la hora establecida salió un ministro de la sacristía y velozmente recitó “Cruz, Bola, bolita, bolita, bolita, Bola . . .”.

Esta es una exageración del hecho que muchos rezan el rosario como si fuera una serie de fórmulas que se repiten sin pensar. Esta devoción mariana debe meditarse con tranquilidad y en silencio. El enfoque del rezo del rosario son los misterios de la vida de Jesús. Los “Padrenuestros” y las “Ave Marías” nos ayudan a entrar en esa meditación en una forma mas profunda. Esas oraciones deben ayudarnos a penetrar el misterio de un acontecimiento gozoso, luminoso, doloroso, o glorioso de la vida de Jesucristo. Pero, una vez que estamos en presencia del misterio, debemos enfocarnos y contemplar a Dios. Esto no significa que el rosario no deba nunca rezarse en voz alta y en grupo. El rosario también tiene su dimensión comunitaria, pero ésta necesita fundarse en una verdadera meditación. En varias culturas latinoamericanas aún se canta el rosario. Ya sea a solas o en comunidad, rezado o cantado, el rosario es un tesoro de nuestra fe que nos puede facilitar la contemplación del salvador. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glez, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Lecturas de hoy

Primera lectura — Dios crea una compañera apropiada para Adán: Eva. Ellos pasan a ser una sola carne (Génesis 2:18-24).

Salmo — Dichoso el que teme al Señor (Salmo 128 [127]).

Segunda lectura — Cristo, el que consagra, y aquellos a quienes consagra tienen un mismo origen. Por eso puede llamarlos hermanos (Hebreos 2:9-11).

Evangelio — Lo que Dios ha unido, que ningún ser humano lo separe. Dejen que los niños vengan a mí. El reino de Dios pertenece a los que son como ellos (Marcos 10:2-16).

Interested in the Catholic Faith?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which interested adults are introduced to the Roman Catholic faith and way of life.

The RCIA process is for the unbaptized who want to join the Catholic Church; and those who have been baptized either Catholic or in another Christian denomination, and want to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.

If you or someone you know is interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, please contact Tom Kosnik at (312) 527-2950.

Fall Schedule for 9:00am Hospitality

We are currently in the process of scheduling fall hosting for refreshments after the 9:00 am Mass (sign-ups through December). Please consider which week you are available to help and sign up today on the sheet at the refreshment table in the Parish Center. You can also sign up online at st-teresa.net under the menus Religious Education, Family Service Opportunities. Talk to Lina or contact her at LHilko@aol.com or (312) 274-0705 if you have questions.

One significant change is that we no longer receive pastry donations from an outside source. If possible, we ask that the host bring the refreshments. If this is difficult for you, but you'd still like to host, please let Lina Hilko now. We appreciate your help.

“I Wish I Could Give You My Legs.”

This past summer my son, Rainer, spent a week in Louisville to visit a cousin of his, John Michael. They are about the same age; they like to look for garden snakes together, get into a little trouble, bug their mothers; you know, the typically twelve- or thirteen-year- old kind of stuff boys like to do.

John Michael has a condition where his gross motor skills slowly diminish over time; it starts with slowness in general things like walking up stairs, putting on cloths, playing kick ball. At some point braces are needed, eventually one is resigned to a wheel chair. At late stages most of all one's gross motor skills are lost. I personally know nothing about the condition. I do know, however, that the brain is not affected. As one loses control of their body, the sharpness of the brain continues to develop. And John Michael is a fairly sharp kid.

Fast forward three months. I was down in Louisville for a business meeting. I stayed with my in-laws. My Father-in-law told me that he took Rainer and John Michael to a climbing wall when Rainer was in town. John Michael was having trouble. Rainer asked him how he was doing. Anyway, at some point Rainer stopped and said to John Michael, “I wish I could give you my legs.”

I get so ridiculously busy with life and business and setting goals and obtaining goals — my stuff. My heart truly goes out to John Michael. But the thought, the words, “I wish I could give you my legs” have never entered my mind. I could not help but think: Isn't this what I am called to do in my faith, to take a break from “my stuff” and think from the heart and respond? I am convinced that the living presence of Christ in me, the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth in me, is tied directly into my response to the world that is immediately before me. “I wish I could give you my legs.” I am still reeling from it.

Help Bring Clean Water to Haiti Sponsor Fr. Frank as He Walks the Camino de Santiago

In this country, we take so many things for granted. It is difficult for us to imagine living our lives without sufficient clean water. When we want water, all we have to do is turn on the faucet.

Imagine a poor country like Haiti where 40 percent of its 10 million people do not have access to a dependable supply of clean water, where the walk to the faucet is an average of 5 miles away, walking an average of 10 miles per day for clean water.

Our goal is to raise $20,000 for Haiti; this money will be used to build wells to provide clean and accessible water. If we raise more than our goal of $20,000, that money will be used to provide healthcare for the people of Haiti.

All donations Fr. Frank raises through sponsorship of his pilgrimage will go to Zanmi Lasanté —Paris, a social justice agency who will have wells built in Haiti by Haitian labor and fund other education and development in impoverished rural Haiti.

You can help. Sponsor Fr. Frank and bring clean, accessible drinking water to those that need it. To donate go to the Give Central QR code on the right or visit st-teresa.net and follow the link. Or call the St. Teresa of Avila office at (773) 528-6650 for more information.

12th Annual Lost Child Pilgrimage

Saturday,
October 20

9:00 am. – 1:30 pm
(8:30 am Check-in, Coffee)

Are you grieving the death of a child?

The Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii invites men and women to join us for this very special day of reflection, healing and hope. We welcome you or someone you know in the peace of Christ Jesus.

I Will Never Leave You - Experiencing Divine Love in Our Darkest Moments

Ours is a God who joins intimately with us in our suffering - not from on high - but very personally in the depths of our pain. Through grace, we can open ourselves to be filled with God's presence even in the midst of our suffering - to be made strong as we honor and transform our great loss. Through the experience of Divine Love, we are invited to unite with God in deeper ways and to discover a place within where there is no boundary between God with us and God within us. It is here that we can find sustaining companionship and peace for the journey. Find out more at the Our Lady of Pompeii website: www.ourladyofpompeii.org or the QR code on the right.

Greenery Order Forms Next Weekend

It's hard to believe it, but it's time to start thinking about the holidays.

Starting next weekend, we will be taking orders until November 4th for Greenery for the Holidays. We will be using the same great vendor we have in the past, offering an arrangement of wreaths, garland, and mantel pieces.

Look for order forms next weekend after all masses. All Greenery items must be pre-ordered, for deliver December 1st and 2nd.

The Holiday Greenery team is looking for volunteers to help with sales and distribution this year. If you're interested in helping out, please contact Kristen Castelloni at Kristen@rlcanning.com or (773) 710-0068.
