Catholic Church

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 21, 2012

Through his suffering,

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

The Humanity of Jesus Christ

Called to service

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation.

Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

Treasures from Our Tradition

In the eyes of many, the papacy is a peculiar institution. Still bedecked with some of the regalia of medieval princes, contemporary popes have worked to define their role in ways that give them influence over the world both within and outside the Church. The trappings of royalty, never really a good fit for the successors of Peter, could render a pope distant and irrelevant. On the other hand, the tendency of many to think of the pope as if he were the CEO of a modern corporation is also inaccurate.

St. Gregory the Great, himself a pope, first called the pope "the servant of the servants of God." He is "first among equals" among other bishops, who by tradition exercise significant authority within their own dioceses, not depending on the pope's authority. This arrangement often puzzles those accustomed to a top-to-bottom "chain of command." History has seen popes of many styles, but most strive to live up to Gregory's definition. Perhaps today's Gospel puts it all into the best perspective: "Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Pray for the pope this week.

La Humanidad de Jesucristo

Llamado al servicio

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

fue seleccionada específicamente para coordinar con las otras dos lecturas, la segunda lectura de hoy, de hecho, continúa el tema de la humanidad de Cristo de una manera notable. El autor de la Carta a los Hebreos pone de relieve la solidaridad que existe entre Jesús y nosotros, precisamente porque en su naturaleza humana Jesús ha conocido los mismos sufrimientos y las pruebas que son parte de nuestra experiencia. Debido a que puede “comadecerse de nuestros sufrimientos” podemos “acercarnos al trono de la gracia para recibir misericordia”. Para el autor de Hebreos, la humanidad de Jesús era un requisito esencial para su muerte redentora, así como una invitación a que veamos en Jesús a alguien con el que podemos identificarnos en nuestras luchas diarias. —Copyright © J. Lecturas de hoy

Primera lectura — Ya que él ofreció su vida como sacrificio por el pecado, el proyecto de Dios prosperará en sus manos (Isaías 53:10-11).

Salmo — Muéstrate bondadoso con nosotros, Señor (Salmo 33 [32]).

Segunda lectura — Porque tenemos un sumo sacerdote que ha sido probado en todo, a excepción del pecado, acerquémonos con plena confianza al Dios de bondad (Hebreos 4:14-16).

Evangelio — El sentarse a su derecha o a su izquierda no le corresponde concederlo a él, dice Jesús a Santiago y Juan. El Hijo del Hombre ha venido a servir y a dar su vida como rescate por una muchedumbre (Marcos 10:35-45 [42-45]).

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Además de ser el Mes del Rosario, octubre es el Mes de las misiones porque fue durante este mes en 1492 que el terciario franciscano Cristóbal Colón trajo los primeros cristianos al continente americano. También lo es porque varios santos misioneros como Francisco de Asís, Pablo de la Cruz, y santas relacionadas con las misiones, como Teresita del Niño Jesús, son conmemorados durante este mes.

Uno de estos santos, Antonio María Claret, fue obispo de Cuba de 1850 a 1857. También fue fundador de los Hijos Misioneros del Corazón Inmaculado de María (Claretianos). El fundó su orden basando su afán por la misión de Cristo en los santos Evangelios. Recomendaba que los cristianos debemos leer el Evangelio cada día para disponernos al servicio del Señor.

Un misionero no necesariamente es la persona que deja su nación para predicar el Evangelio a otros pueblos. El verdadero misionero es aquella persona que une su vida a la misión de Jesús, viviendo el Evangelio ya sea en su hogar, su trabajo, su parroquia o, si Dios así lo pide, en otras tierras. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. Fall Schedule for 9:00am Hospitality

We are currently in the process of scheduling fall hosting for refreshments after the 9:00 am Mass (sign-ups through December). Please consider which week you are available to help and sign up today on the sheet at the refreshment table in the Parish Center. You can also sign up online at stteresa.net under the menus Religious Education, Family Service Opportunities. Talk to Lina or contact her at LHilko@aol.com or (312) 274-0705 if you have questions.

One significant change is that we no longer receive pastry donations from an outside source. If possible, we ask that the host bring the refreshments. If this is difficult for you, but you'd still like to host, please let Lina Hilko now. We appreciate your help.

Are you a Monk or are you a Friar, or Both?

A friend of mine was recently going on about the difference between monks and friars and that most Catholics don't know the difference between the two. I was hesitant to show my lack of knowledge having a Masters in Theology and all. But finally I overcame my hesitancy and asked my friend, "So what's the difference?"

My friend, very proud I must say, explained to me that a monk lives in a monastery and focuses on praying, fasting and working in the monastery. Friars on the other hand typically live in small communities and are in the thick of it, offering ministerial services to the people of God. Where monks focus on the "other worldly" kind of things Friars focus on "working in the world," making the Kingdom of God a reality.

Probably the most famous monk is Dom Pérignon, the monk who improved the process for making Champagne. I don't know this for a fact, but I believe the creation of champagne was an accident; lucky for us. Probably the most famous friar is Friar Tuck, the happy-go-lucky friar that hung around with Robin Hood who, by the way, also was associated with wine and beer and the like.

For us church going folks we don't think too much about monks or friars. I am sure that one trying to discern a vocation as a monk or friar there would be quite a bit of thinking and praying about it all. But there is, in each of us, both a monk and a friar. When we are praying and contemplating our monk side is coming out. And when we are doing good works in the world our friar side is coming out. Just being aware that they are there and striving for a healthy balance can be a good thing for our spiritual development.

The Human Concerns Commission of St. Clement Church is holding a Fair Trade/Green Market on Sunday, November 4th, from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm in Fireside Hall at St. Clement School, 2524 N. Orchard.

Help Bring Clean Water to Haiti Sponsor Fr. Frank as He Walks the Camino de Santiago

In this country, we take so many things for granted. It is difficult for us to imagine living our lives without sufficient clean water. When we want water, all we have to do is turn on the faucet.

Imagine a poor country like Haiti where 40 percent of its 10 million people do not have access to a dependable supply of clean water, where the walk to the faucet is an average of 5 miles away, walking an average of 10 miles per day for clean water.

Our goal is to raise $20,000 for Haiti; this money will be used to build wells to provide clean and accessible water. If we raise more than our goal of $20,000, that money will be used to provide healthcare for the people of Haiti.

All donations Fr. Frank raises through sponsorship of his pilgrimage will go to Zanmi Lasanté —Paris, a social justice agency who will have wells built in Haiti by Haitian labor and fund other education and development in impoverished rural Haiti.

You can help. Sponsor Fr. Frank and bring clean, accessible drinking water to those that need it. To donate go to the Give Central QR code on the right or visit stteresa.net and follow the link. Or call the St. Teresa of Avila office at (773) 528-6650 for more information.
