Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison

- The offertory collection for last weekend, October 12-13, 2013, was $7,532.
- For the 2014 Fiscal Year, Sunday and Holy Day collections are down 14.4% from the 2013 Fiscal Year; versus expenses, we have a $63,602 deficit.
- For the 2014 fiscal year, the cost per family per week is $36 as 430 families contribute to the Parish.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections, i.e. the goal is for the striped bars to exceed the black bars in the chart above.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections, and key issues.
- The Finance Council meets the third Monday of every month at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center.

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Food Pantry Shopping List

Four items the Food Pantry could really use:

Boxed Cereal (sweetened and unsweetened)

Halloween Candy

Hotel Bathroom Lotions and Shampoos

Extra-strength grocery bags with handles

And if you have Thursday mornings free, even occasionally, it would be great to have another van driver to pick up groceries at the Greater Chicago Food Depository. If you are willing and able to do so, please contact Karen Vogel, kbreenvogel@gmail.com or Dave Hilko, dahilko@deloitte.com.

October Baptisms

Reese Harper Mills (10-13-13)

St. Teresa said...

“I say only that prayer is the door to favors as great as those He granted me. If this door is closed, I don’t know how He will grant them.”

Interested in the Catholic Faith?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which interested adults are introduced to the Roman Catholic faith and way of life.

The RCIA process is for the unbaptized who want to join the Catholic Church; and those who have been baptized either Catholic or in another Christian denomination, and want to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.

If you or someone you know is interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, please contact Fr. Frank at (773) 528-6650.

Annual Mass Supporting People With Mental Illnesses, Families, Friends, And Mental Healthcare Providers.

Mental Illnesses, such as depression, bi-polar disease, schizophrenia, anxiety disorders and others touch one in four families. Stigma, the misinformation about these illnesses, keeps people from seeking help and stigma keeps people from helping. The Mass is for all affected and those who are interested in helping.

The Mass will start at 2:00 pm on October 27th at St Gertrude Church, 1420 West Granville, Chicago. (Granville is 6200 North, and the church is four blocks west of Broadway at Granville and Glenwood.) Refreshments and fellowship will follow Mass.

For more information contact Deacon Tom Lambert 773-525-0453x21 or olmcinfo2@aol.com; or Deacon Dan Welter 312-534-8283 or dwelter@archchicago.org.

My Dear Friends,
As you all have shared in my life, and formed me into the person I have become, I hope you will be able to join me at a Mass of Thanksgiving, as I give thanks to God for calling me to serve at the Altar as a Deacon.

Know that in the weeks and days ahead as I prepare for Ordination, I will be holding all of you near and dear to my heart, and will be giving thanks to God for each and everyone of you.

Persistent Prayer

My house shares a back yard with four college students. Ryan is one of them. Every morning the first thing Ryan does is go out the back door with a bagful of nuts and feed the squirrels. They hang out in our apple tree the way teenagers hang out around malls.

One of the squirrels has become particularly bold and now waits expectantly for Ryan right at the back door. Lately the squirrel won't go away, no matter the time of day, no matter who's in the back yard. The squirrel just won't leave, nuts or no nuts, people or no people. Because it's become pesky, I now ignore the squirrel most of the time. Though Ryan doesn't, I do. Nevertheless, the squirrel is slowly getting my attention. Over the course of my lifetime, God is getting my attention, too.

People tend to hear this week's Gospel parable about the widow who keeps knocking on the judge's door as a story about God who eventually gives in to the widow. I think it's more a story about me eventually giving in to God. I hope God's not offended by being compared to a squirrel, but God is much more like the squirrel (or the widow) than like the judge. God's the one who does the pleading, it seems to me. While the parable seems to say, "Don't lose heart; God will eventually hear and answer," perhaps it's really saying, "Don't lose heart; God will not give up knocking on your door." — Copyright © 2012, World Library Publications.

Oración Persistente

Yo comparto el traspatio de mi casa con cuatro estudiantes universitarios. Rafael es uno de ellos. Lo primero que hace Rafael en la mañana es salir por la puerta trasera con una bolsa llena de nueces para las ardillas. Una de las ardillas se ha vuelto particularmente atrevida y ahora espera a Rafael justo en la puerta trasera. Últimamente la ardilla no se va, no importa el momento del día ni quién esté en el traspatio. Hayan nueces o no, personas o no, la ardilla no se va. Como se ha puesto latosa yo la ignoro la mayoría de las veces. Rafael no, pero yo sí. No obstante, la ardilla poco a poco va llamando mi atención. En el transcurso de mi vida Dios también me está llamando la atención.

Al escuchar la parábola del Evangelio de esta semana acerca de la viuda que no se cansaba de suplicarle al juez la gente tiende a pensar que la historia se refiere a Dios, que con el tiempo se rinde ante la viuda. Yo creo que es más bien una historia acerca de mí, rindiéndome ante Dios. Espero que Dios no se ofenda por compararlo con una ardilla, pero Dios se parece mucho más a la ardilla (o a la viuda) que al juez. A mi parecer, Dios es quien suplica. Aunque la parábola parece decir: "No te descorazonas, con el tiempo Dios escucha y responde", tal vez lo que diga es: "No te descorazonas, Dios no se cansará de suplicarte". — Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications.

Building Faith Together Collections Reach $311,500

$1,320,000 We have formally entered the collection phase of our campaign and have collected $311,500 in pledges so far. There is a “thermometer” depicting pledges collected located in the church, which we will update in $88,000 increments.

Even though we have reached our pledge goal, we are still accepting pledges to cover unanticipated costs from changes in fees, demolition of the old school and convent buildings, or the renovation of the church. Pledge cards are available on the tables at the back of church and in the gathering space.

$311,500 I pray that everyone will rejoice in the graces and hard work of so many of our fellow parishioners and make a meaningful gift that will lead us through a successful effort.

Thank you and God Bless!

Fr. Frank

Holiday Greenery Order Forms Next Weekend!

It's hard to believe it, but starting next weekend, October 26-27th, we will be taking pre-paid Greenery orders for the Holidays. You'll have two weeks to get your orders in and they'll be ready to pick up by the first weekend in December.

We will be using the same great vendor we have in the past, offering an arrangement of wreaths, garland, and mantel pieces. Look for order forms next weekend after all masses.

The Holiday Greenery team is looking for volunteers to help with sales and distribution this year. If you're interested in helping out, please contact Kristen Castelloni at Kristen@rlcanning.com or (773) 710-0068.

Alive to Life

When people tell me they cannot pray, I inwardly cringe, because I never have the courage — or the cruelty — to tell them the truth. But I will tell you: If people cannot pray it is because they don't want to pray.

I will now soften that harsh judgment a little (but steadfastly stand by it) by admitting that our inability to pray is not entirely our own fault. We have been misled for centuries by powerful pray-ers. It wasn't their fault; they were simply praying in their own way, and we mistook it for immutable rules for our own prayer. We have been urged to climb seven-storey mountains, to wander through innumerable interior castle rooms. We have been led through the dark night of the soul to fight our psychic demons. We have gotten lost in intricate mazes supposedly leading to our center and God's essence. We have gone on pilgrimages to exotic places. We have obediently inhaled through our nose and exhaled through our mouth; we have knelt, stood, sat, lain and lotused.

Enough, already! We are exhausted with effort and depressed by failure. We have even forgotten what we are trying to accomplish. And maybe that's the problem: Prayer is not an accomplishment. Prayer is a state of being.

If people think they are too tired to pray, maybe they are simply bored with God and need a more exciting companion. If people say they are too sick to pray, does that mean that God is not interested in sick people? Those who complain they are too busy to pray ought to know that excuse is valid only after they are too busy to eat, sleep, work, shop, play and watch TV. People who say they just don't feel like praying should get over themselves. Prayer is about God.

Pray Always Always Pray

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Prayer is awareness of God, engagement with God, abandonment to God, dissolution in God. It is as natural as breathing, as spontaneous as wonder.

Prayer is a problem for us because we have misplaced God. We have lost God in eternity, and so we look for clever ways to bring God back into our time. We have forgotten that God is equally everywhere and that eternity touches down on earth every second.

Many people say that they don't know what to say to God. But they somehow know what to say to spouses, lovers, children, store clerks and even strangers. How is it that we are tongue-tied with our Creator? Is there nothing we're just dying to tell God, no joy we are bursting to share, no thing we desperately need?

All of our puzzling over prayer is a tribute to our faith, our desire to contact God. But we Americans are hindered by a triple obsession: technique, communication and the exotic. Because there's a technique for success, we think there must be a technique for prayer. We think that talking is the magic cure for everything. We're mesmerized by incense, chants and saffron robes; we somehow think that mysterious rituals give access to mystery itself.

Let's stop all this nonsense. Analyzing our prayer is like giving someone a gift while worrying if it is the right size. Giving our prayer a grade is like wondering how you are doing while making love. Prayer is not a performance.

Prayer is awareness of God, engagement with God, abandonment to God, dissolution in God. It is as natural as breathing, as spontaneous as wonder. Prayer is an automatic reflex to reality: holding our breath at the beauty of a flower, breaking our heart at the pain of a child. Prayer is our mind exploding in the presence of mystery, our spirits soaring on the wings of mutual recognition. To be alive to life is to pray.
