Shepherdess and Mother

Jesus is the Lamb. Jesus is the Shepherd. Jesus is the sheep gate through which the shepherd or the sheep come and go. A wise liturgist once said to me, “Choose one image and go with it.”

As we celebrate Shepherd Sunday, in North America we also celebrate Mother’s Day and I’m going to suggest an addition to the plethora of images: Shepherdess Mother. In his interview with America magazine, Pope Francis asked, “How are we treating the people of God?” He answers his own question: “I dream of a church that is a mother and a shepherdess. The church’s ministers must be merciful, take responsibility for the people and accompany them like the Good Samaritan, who washes, cleans and raises up his neighbor. This is pure Gospel.” Lots of good words, the kind of words we’re becoming accustomed to from this pope, and he is making a lot of us feel happy and proud and ... challenged.

I’m a mother. I have raised/am raising six kids, currently ages 6 to 38. Like many mothers, I work hard at not acting like a neurotic control freak. Still, deep down I believe that my kids’ successes are despite me and their failures due to my failings, which are legion. But sometimes I get it right.

The hardest parts are not the crises. I’m pretty good in crisis mode. Shepherdess Mothers know how to go after that one near the cliff while the 99 (or five) are safe in the pasture. I have accused my kids of conspiring: “OK, your turn near the cliff’s edge today. I’ll take next week.” All of them safe in the pasture at the same time would be a most welcome Mother’s Day present.

When they are little, the hardest part is the daily-ness of it. Children are cute and charming, but they’re so needy. And ungrateful. And frankly, after a while, just a little bit boring. But there they are every single day, every hour of every day, with needs: I’m hungry. Watch me. I can’t find my shoes. He keeps looking at me. I don’t want to take a nap!

“I dream of a church that is a mother and a shepherdess. The church’s ministers must be merciful, take responsibility for the people and accompany them like the Good Samaritan, who washes, cleans and raises up his neighbor. This is pure Gospel.”

Then they get bigger and there is a new hardest part that has to do with those other voices mentioned in today’s Gospel — voices of those who do not have your children’s best interests at heart. When the kids are little, incoming voices can be carefully monitored. Then there comes a time when those voices are everywhere you aren’t, and you can only pray and stay in touch with your older children you still love so much while trying to respect their free will as much as Jesus does. And, if they realize a voice they listened to might not have been the wisest, be available if they come to you for advice or help or mothering.

Last year I had to be gone for a week to deal with a family emergency, leaving my husband with the three younger kids. He invited his mother to come and help out. One day the school called. The 8-year-old was running a fever. Over the phone I diagnosed strep and insisted he get to the pediatrician. (I was right.) When he finally got home with the sick kid, his mom had supper on the table. My husband was grateful and uttered words I’ll never let him forget: “Wow, this mothering business is a two-man job.”

Actually it’s a job for as many as you can rope in — aunts, uncles and grandparents, honorary and otherwise; teachers, coaches, pastors, doctors, therapists. Keeping the sheepfold safe for the sheep is not just the work of one or two. Kids, indeed all of us, need the whole community, the whole church — acting as shepherdess and mother.

Finance Council Meeting Minutes

March 17, 2014

Attendance:

Bill Mack (Chair)	Yes	Jack Halpin	Yes
Jane Bronson	No	Jane Ott	Yes
Andrew Deye	Yes	Fr. Frank	Yes
Steve Fortino	Yes	Erica Saccucci	Yes
Becky Francis	No	Justin Peters	Yes
Dave Hilko	Yes

Key Discussion:

Erica provided the financials and the Council reviewed them. Administrative Expenses are being watched along with the line item Maintenance & Building Repairs.

The Capital Campaign, Building Faith Together has raised to date $580,000. Discussion arose around the realistic goal for the entire project. Justin with his experience in capital construction has seen an average increase of 10% from initial estimates. A contingency of $100,000 will ensure that the project will be completed efficiently and cover any unanticipated building issues that may arise. This will bring the amount of the project to $1.4 million.

The Land Sale is under contract and anticipated to close in mid June. During the last Council meeting in February parishioners were able to bring up concerns to the committee regarding how the money would be used from the sale. At this March's meeting, it was agreed that of the anticipated return on the sale of $2.9 million we have designated:

- $100k for the contingency on the building renovation and that any costs over $1.4 million will have to go to Finance Council for approval
- $90k for repairs to Parish Center to be in compliance with the Protecting God's Children directive;
- $110k for repairs on the roof, gutters, and air conditioning in the rectory;
- The remaining $2.6 million will be designated for future capital endeavors.

The Council discussed the best ways to be transparent to the parish during the Land Sale and the church construction. It was decided that minutes of our monthly meetings would be posted in the bulletin and St. Teresa's website.

Fr. Frank talked about the costs associated with protecting the children of the parish. Particular capital improvements must be met and are expected to cost around $90,000.

The next Council meeting will be May 19th at 7:00 pm. Please note there will not be an April meeting.

Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections, and key issues.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Every rectory office has received a panicked phone call from a person who has been invited to serve as a godparent, or from someone newly engaged, who suddenly “needs to get confirmed.” While the lack of confirmation is not an obstacle for marriage, it is for godparenting. Many are surprised that the Church seems to be looking for a kind of sacramental “seal” on one’s baptism before the door opens fully to this ministry. Yet if you think about it, would you want someone to guide you to a place that he or she had not yet been? A godparent has to be someone who has “been there” and knows the way.

Although signet rings and wax seals have passed from use, our society depends on “seals of approval” ranging from certificates of quality to the familiar safety seals on medicines and foods. While Eucharist is the “seal” of the sacrament of baptism, there is a sense in which one’s Christian initiation is also incomplete without confirmation. Have you been confirmed? Perhaps it’s time to inquire now, before you have to make that dreaded phone call! — Rev. James Field, Copyright

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

El 19 de abril en Uruguay se conmemora a la Virgen del Verdún, que está colocada sobre una columna de seis metros en uno de los cerros que rodean la ciudad de Minas. Esta imagen fue puesta allí por el párroco don José De Luca en 1900. Su intención era dedicar esta imagen en recuerdo del siglo diecinueve y recibir así el siglo veinte, dedicándolo a María Inmaculada en honor de Cristo Redentor.

En el 2007 la peregrinación a la Virgen del Verdún llevaba como lema “De la mano de María, discípulos y misioneros de Jesucristo”. Este bello refrán nos recuerda que vamos caminando de la mano de María, nuestra hermana en la fe, para ser como ella, discípulos de su hijo y misioneros del mensaje redentor de Jesucristo. No obstante, hay que reconocer que mucho cristianos, especialmente nosotros, los latinoamericanos, nos quedamos sólo con María y nunca llegamos a Jesús. Eso a María no le gusta ya que toda reverencia a ella debe abrirnos a recibir a su único hijo, Jesús, y adorarlo como nuestro único Señor y salvador. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Following the Good Shepherd

The joyful tone of the past three Sundays of Easter is a little darker today. All three readings remind us of suffering, death, and sin. We, like Peter's audience in the first reading, can ask, "What are we to do?" And the answer will be the same: we must reform. Or, as Peter says in his first Letter, we have strayed like sheep and must return to the shepherd.

Jesus describes himself as a shepherd in today's Gospel, and we know it was one of the earliest images of Christ in the apostolic church. Today's passage continues the darker theme of the first two readings. Danger lurks and the sheep need protection. They might follow a false leader; they might be stolen or destroyed. Only in Jesus Christ will we be safe. Only in him will we have eternal life. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Sigamos al Buen Pastor

El tono de alegría de los tres domingos pasados se ensombrece hoy. Las tres lecturas nos recuerdan el sufrimiento, la muerte y el pecado. Nosotros, igual que la audiencia de Pedro en la primera lectura, podemos preguntar, "¿Qué tenemos que hacer?" Y la respuesta es la misma: Tenemos que convertirnos. O, como Pedro dice en su primera carta, nos hemos extraviado como las ovejas perdidas y tenemos que regresar al pastor.

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús se describe a sí mismo como el pastor y sabemos que fue una de las primeras imágenes de Cristo en la Iglesia de los apóstoles. El pasaje de hoy continúa el tema más sombrío de las dos primeras lecturas. El peligro acecha y las ovejas necesitan protección. Podrían seguir un guía falso, podrían ser robadas o destruidas. Sólo con Jesús estarán a salvo. Sólo con Jesús lograremos la vida eterna. ## Building Faith Together Collections Now $655,846

$1,320,000 We have collected $655,846 in pledges so far in our Building Faith Together campaign. There is a “thermometer” depicting pledges collected located at the back of church that we will update in $88,000 increments.

Even though we have reached our pledge goal, we are still accepting pledges to cover unanticipated costs from changes in fees, demolition of the old school and convent buildings, or the renovation of the church.

Pledge cards are available on the tables in the gathering space.

I pray that everyone will rejoice in the graces and hard work of so many of our fellow parishioners and make a meaningful gift that will lead us through a successful effort.

Thank you and God Bless!

Fr. Frank

Guest Author Here on May 18th

In the Gospel for Sunday, May 18 (the 5th Sunday of Easter), Jesus tells us that he is “the Way.” In other words, there is a specific path to God. What does this path look like? How do we walk this path in everyday living?

To help us explore this path, we will welcome a guest speaker at our 9:00 am Mass on Sunday May 18. Joe Paprocki, the National Consultant for Faith Formation for Loyola Press, will share his thoughts on what it means to follow “the Way,” drawing from his new book, Under the Influence of Jesus: the Transforming Experience of Encountering Christ.

Following the Mass, join us for refreshments and a book signing with Joe. Copies of the book will be available after Mass.

Fr. Chas to Lead Tour of Turkey & Greece

Dear St. Teresa Parishioner,

Besides presiding at your 5:00pm Saturday Mass, one of my other responsibilities is working at the Association of the Miraculous Medal.

Among other things I lead their fall and spring pilgrimages, and I'd like to invite you on our next journey, October 28 to November 7 of this year.

This fall pilgrimage centers around a cruise (no daily packing!) in Greece and Turkey—many places visited by St. Paul and other missionaries of the early Church. Of course we will also see other places historic and modern.

For a brochure with full information, pricing, and how to sign up go to the Association of the Miraculous Medal website, send me an email (cshelby3@gmail.com) or give me a phone call (773-325-8725).

<http://www.amm.org/aspscripts/pilg/2014/fall/fall14greceturkey.pdf>,

There are also copies of the brochures on the table in the Gathering Space.

— Father Charles Shelby, C.M.

Christmas in June

Help us honor the memory of Isabella Feliciano, who was prematurely taken from this life in Christmas, 2010, after a long battle with leukemia. Although it isn't Christmas quite yet, we are planning something special for the 9:00 am Sunday Mass on June 22, 2014.

Please bring a new, unwrapped item that is suitable for children ages 1 to 18 to any of the Masses that weekend. These gifts will be delivered to the Comer Children's Hospital at the University of Chicago, where doctors and nurses undertook heroic efforts to extend Isabella's life.

Another reason we have chosen Comer is that a significant number of the patients at Comer do not have insurance or the private means to pay and receive care, which is paid for with Medicaid and other subsidies. The gifts do not need to be elaborate or expensive. Board games, books, arts and crafts materials (sticks, glue, boxes, sequins, beads, strings, glitters, origami, brushes, paints, ceramic, knitting/crochet materials, etc.), colored pencils, special paper, colored pens, crayons and other similar materials are most appreciated and will go a long way to bring a smile. Art therapy helps children in their healing.

Please make certain that the gift is new because so many of the kids have weakened immune systems. Gifts should not be wrapped so staff at Comer can decide what to distribute to each child.

We are doing this at this time of year because it is unexpected and will hopefully be a wonderful surprise for the kids and will help lift their spirits a bit. It also happens to be close to Isabella's birthday which is June 25th.

To add to the feeling of that Christmas morning surprise, the songs at the 9:00 am Mass on Sunday will have a Christmas theme. So, come prepared to sing some Christmas carols even though the temperature will be in the '80s. And please bring a gift to help honor the memory of Isabella Feliciano.

Parish Deanery Representatives — Two are Needed

II-D

Fr. Frank is looking for two individuals to represent St. Teresa of Avila Parish on the II-D Deanery Council, to which our parish and 10 other neighboring parishes belong.

Parish representatives act as liaisons between the parish and the Deanery by gathering information about the parish and letting our neighboring parishes know what is going on at St. Teresa.

Please contact Fr. Frank at (773) 528-6650 or FJSasso@aol.com if you're interested.

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
