Pay It Forward

Then the fever left her and she waited on them. (Mark 1:31)

The little story of Jesus healing the mother of Peter's wife appears in all three synoptic Gospels, and each includes this detail: After she was cured, she got up and waited on them. It seems that the appropriate response to grace is to "pay it forward."

I'm reminded of the movie by that name. The premise is simple. A young boy, looking for a way to fulfill a class assignment — which was to change the world — did something extraordinarily nice for three strangers with the admonition that they should go and do likewise. It's a pretty amazing idea, not to mention a great lesson in the power of exponents, which I am relearning as I help my sixth-grade child with her math homework. Even a single act of kindness, if it impacts others exponentially, could conceivably reach the entire globe.

Humor me. One person serves three, who each serve three more (nine), who each serve three more (27), and so on to 81, 243, 729, 2187. Maybe it is a way to change the world, or at least the part of the world we live in. In just seven stages, every member of our parish community might receive — and pass on — extraordinary kindness. This could be an idea for Lent.

But ... do we believe that people would really cooperate? We

Grace is that experience of going from loss to gain, eyes opened to what we did not see before.

lack faith in people. Or perhaps we lack hope.

Today's first reading gives a clear glimpse of life without hope as Job utters: "I shall not see happiness again" (Job 7:7).

A lector once told me that she almost choked as she had to end that reading with the phrase "The Word of the Lord." And Job was wrong. He didn't know the end of his story. After listening to pages of poetic chastisement about how much he doesn't know God and God's ways, Job is blessed by God with more happiness than he could have imagined.

Perhaps we have known what it is like to recover from a serious illness — miraculously, as Peter's mother-in-law experienced; or in a way that only seems like a miracle, at least to me, as I take antibiotics or lots of my husband's chicken soup. Perhaps we are in the midst of an illness that won't go away, but still there are those days of less pain, when the sun feels warm on our face and food tastes good again.

Or perhaps we've known another experience of grace. We find the right work, reconcile with a friend, a wayward child finds the way home, or we fall in love. Grace is that experience of going from loss to gain, eyes opened to what we did not see before.

What do we do next? Do we pay it forward? Good times and bad visit everyone. Believers are wise not to succumb to despair during the bad times or allow the good times to make them smug or selfish. Believers strive to bear all, knowing that the end of the story will be revealed in God's own time.

Meanwhile, grace is to be shared, and, if we are willing, each one of us may become a vessel of grace, a Christ-bearer to those on our path in this waiting, needy world.

Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison to Date

- For the 2015 Fiscal Year, Sunday and Holy Day collections are 3 percent below those of Fiscal Year 2014.
- The 2014 Christmas collection was $24,380.
- For the 2015 fiscal year, the cost per family per week is $36 as 430 families contribute to the parish.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections, i.e. the goal is for the striped bars to exceed the black bars in the chart above.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the parish.

Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections, and key issues.

Interested in the Catholic Faith?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which interested adults are introduced to the Roman Catholic faith and way of life.

The RCIA process is for the un-baptized who want to join the Catholic Church; and those who have been baptized either Catholic or in another Christian denomination, and want to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.

RCIA will begin this Fall. If you or someone you know is interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, please contact Tom Micinski at (773) 528-6650.

Treasures from Our Tradition

“Last rites” is a persistent but pesky phrase in the Catholic lexicon, and not a particularly useful phrase since it props open the door to misunderstanding. Many Catholics presume it refers to the anointing of the sick, yet there is nothing “last” about it. Clearly, the Church desires anointing to be celebrated fairly early on in the crisis of illness, and not as a last measure. The Rites for the Dying stand apart in the Church’s plan, and include two principal rites. The first is viaticum, Latin for “food for the journey,” the reception of Holy Communion by a dying person. Even very active and aware Catholics often do not realize that this “last rite” does not require a priest’s presence, but can be conducted by a deacon or minister of Holy Communion.

The second “last rite” in the pastoral plan is a prayer called “Commendation of the Dying.” Similarly, this does not require the presence of a priest, but can be led by any minister or family member. Too often, we have focused on what only a priest can do, namely anoint, and have forgotten the fullness of liturgical care that the Church desires for its dying faithful. The “last rites” are completely available to us even when a priest is not. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Los textos sagrados que componen lo que llamamos Biblia fueron coleccionados, organizados y ordenados durante los primeros cuatrocientos años del cristianismo. Fue durante el Concilio de Cartago (Siglo IV), que finalmente se canonizó (estableció el orden) la Biblia católica. Los textos sagrados de la Biblia se han proclamado a lo largo de los siglos en la celebración eucarística para nutrir la fe de los creyentes. En 1969, la Iglesia católica estableció un nuevo Leccionario conteniendo los textos bíblicos que se proclaman en la liturgia. El Leccionario contiene un gran número de textos de la Escritura, organizados de una manera muy especial a fin de que estos textos sean proclamados en las misas dominicales y en las feriales (entre semana). El Leccionario está organizado de tal manera que si una persona asiste a misa diariamente durante un período de tres años, escuchará casi todos los textos de la Biblia. La proclamación de los Evangelios se realiza mediante ciclos dominicales. Durante el Ciclo A, proclamamos el Evangelio de Mateo; el de Marcos durante el ciclo B y el de Lucas durante el ciclo C. El Evangelio de san Juan se proclama durante la Cuaresma y la Pascua. Así mismo, el capítulo 6 de este Evangelio se incorpora al Ciclo B, que es el de Marcos. El resto del Nuevo Testamento se proclama como segunda lectura, excepto durante la Pascua, mientras que la primera lectura se proclama siempre del Antiguo Testamento, excepto durante la Pascua. No olvidemos el Salmo, que es una respuesta a la Escritura. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glitz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Healing Ministry

During Jesus' ministry "he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons." This is the case in today's Gospel. Jesus fulfills the vision of Psalm 147: "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

Jesus knew, however, that he couldn't possibly heal all the illness in the world. No matter how many people he cured or how many hours he ministered, there always would be more suffering people like Job who craved his healing touch. His primary mission was not to rid the world of all suffering. His "purpose" was to preach the coming of the reign of God that heals, yes, but ultimately transcends and transforms earthly suffering. With Paul, Jesus could have said, "Woe to me if I do not preach" that good news. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Ministerio de Sanación

Durante su ministerio, Jesús "curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios". Así es el caso en el Evangelio de hoy. Jesús cumple la visión del Salmo 147: "Él sana los corazones destrozados y venda sus heridas."

Jesús sabía, sin embargo, que nunca podría sanar todas las enfermedades del mundo. Por mucha gente que curara o muchas horas que dedicara al ministerio, siempre habría más personas afligidas como Job, ansiosos de su toque sanador. Su misión principal no era la de erradicar todo sufrimiento del mundo. Su "obligación" era predicar la venida del Reino de Dios que sana, sí, pero en último caso, trasciende y transforma todo sufrimiento humano. Con Pablo, Jesús pudiera decir, "Ay de mí si no anuncio" esa Buena Nueva. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Building Faith Together Collections Now $834,026

$1,320,000 We have collected $834,026 on our pledges so far in our Building Faith Together campaign.

There is a “thermometer” depicting pledges collected located at the back of church that we will update in $88,000 increments.

$834,026 Even though we have reached our pledge goal, we are still accepting pledges to cover unanticipated costs from changes in fees on the renovation of the church.

I pray that everyone will rejoice in the graces and hard work of so many of our fellow parishioners and make a meaningful gift that will lead us through a successful effort.

Thank you and God Bless!

Fr. Frank

Evangelization

Seeking a Leader

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
