Living in Hope

This Sunday, we read an ancient story of impending violence. The prospect of Abraham killing his son Isaac causes us to shudder. We ask ourselves: How could Abraham have even entertained the thought of sacrificing his son — let alone begun the preparations?

We know that in ancient times human sacrifice was accepted, but we cannot get our minds around that idea. And neither can God.

This story is presented as God's test of Abraham's obedience. It is also thought to be about God's repudiation of human sacrifice.

The story also prefigures God's offering of his own Son for the salvation of the world. In this case, however, the Son does die — at the hands of men. The outcome was that Jesus' death gave way to resurrection; death brought life.

But just as Abraham did not know what the outcome would be when he heard God tell him to sacrifice his son, so Jesus' disciples did not know what the outcome would be when they heard the prediction of Jesus' passion and death. They were struggling to understand the new ideas and challenges that Jesus was presenting to them. It was even more difficult for them to get their minds around what Jesus was beginning to share about his having to suffer and die.

As weak and limited human beings, the disciples needed hope to carry them through. The disciples needed to stick with Jesus. At the time, the newness of the message and the reality of the opposition to Jesus were very real to the disciples.

In our complex, difficult and often violent world, we need hope, too. We need a foretaste of the glory of resurrection. We could use a transfiguration experience to see us through.

How were they going to be able to understand Jesus, accept his message and stay true to him, especially when opposition led to rejection, violence and death?

In the transfiguration story, Jesus, moved by the Spirit, takes the key disciples to the mountain-top. They know that in times past, God communicated special messages on mountains; and here on this mountain, the disciples are given inspiration through the abiding presence of God with them. They are also afforded a growing understanding through the presence of Moses and Elijah. Their presence signals to the disciples that God is continuing the long history of the chosen people up into the present time through Jesus.

Suddenly, a cloud comes and overshadows them: God is present in a special way. And God speaks unmistakably, as at Jesus' baptism in the Jordan: "This is my Son, my beloved. Listen to him." The disciples are offered hope that their following of Jesus, their faith in Jesus and his message, are not misplaced. No matter what happens, God is in this. God is in charge.

The disciples did not understand Jesus' words about "rising from the dead," but the Transfiguration experience offered them new hope for the future. In our complex, difficult and often violent world, we need hope, too. We need a foretaste of the glory of resurrection. We could use a transfiguration experience to see us through.

Our experience of transfiguration can come in prayer that is open to the Spirit. Our experience can come in the community: God's faithful people connecting us to God's promises brought into the present. Or, you and I might be the transfiguration experience needed by someone else. God worked through Moses, Elijah, Peter, James, John and countless others to bring the hope of God's presence and full life — despite rejection, violence and death. God can work through us to bring hope to others today. — Celebration Publications, Deacon Ross Beaudoin

Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison to Date

Treasures from Our Tradition

Within the tradition of the Christian church, there are differing ways of observing a Lenten fast. For Eastern Catholics and Orthodox, the discipline is close to our understanding of “abstinence.” Certain foods are eliminated from the diet entirely. The rules are basically monastic rules, and the customs of a monastery table are embraced in the home. This year, “Meatfare Sunday” is February 26, and it is the last time that meat is admitted to the diet until Easter. The following Sunday, known as “Cheesefare Sunday,” takes cheese and all dairy products from the table. It is also known as “forgiveness Sunday” because a true fast is about crowning life with love, holding back harsh words, and cutting off anger.

The Eastern churches fast even from celebrating the Eucharist from Monday through Friday. We don’t count Sundays as fast days, but Eastern Christians fast through the weekends. People are expected to come as close to the ideal as possible, and the Lenten services keep reminding them not to take pride in their fasting, since the devil himself never eats! What’s left on the menu? Grains, vegetables, eggs (maybe), and fish. Imagine the joys of the Easter table after such a fast! — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Cuando Jesús se transfiguró sobre la cima de un monte, Pedro, reconociendo que algo sagrado ocurría en ese lugar quiso construir tres chozas. Como si buscara hacer un santuario, un lugar santo, donde Dios se manifestara de manera particular. El santuario puede ser el lugar entero o sólo parte de un edificio. En nuestras iglesias, el santuario es el presbiterio donde se encuentra el altar mayor, donde son consagrados el pan y el vino. iglesias antiguas como las Basílicas romanas tienen un segundo santuario que es la capilla donde se reserva el Santísimo Sacramento en el tabernáculo o sagrario.

Los santuarios más importantes de la cristiandad se encuentran en Palestina. Europa tiene varios santuarios como la tumba de Santiago en Compostela, España. Algunos santuarios famosos de América son los de Guadalupe (México), Teresa de los Andes (Chile), Señor de los Milagros (Perú), Cristo Negro de Esquipulas (Guatemala), Montserrat (Colombia) y el de la Divina Misericordia (Chicago). Todo santuario es un lugar donde se une el recuerdo y la vivencia contemporánea de la fe, son lugares donde la Iglesia institucional y la religión popular conviven y se enriquecen mutuamente. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glez, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Listen & Follow

“This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” And listen they did. From that moment on, Peter, James, and John were ardent followers, forsaking everything to follow in their Master’s footsteps. Like the psalmist crying, “O Lord, I am your servant,” the three disciples committed themselves to lives of incredible hardship and indescribable joy. After that day on the mountain, they never again wavered in their chosen vocation.

Though our tests may not be as severe as Abraham’s and our peak experiences not as dramatic as the Transfiguration, we all face the daily challenges of walking “before the Lord in the land of the living.” As we follow our varied calls to love and serve, let’s be comforted by Paul’s reminder to the Romans: “If God is for us, who can be against us?”

Escucha y Sigue

“Este es mi Hijo amado; escúchenlo”. Y sí que lo escucharon. Desde ese momento, Pedro, Santiago y Juan fueron sus ardientes seguidores, desechándolo todo para seguir las huellas del Maestro. Tal como proclama el salmista, “Señor, he aquí tu servidor”, los tres discípulos se comprometieron a vidas de increíbles penurias e indescriptible gozo. Después de ese día en la montaña, nunca más dudaron de la vocación escogida.

Aunque nuestras pruebas no sean tan severas como la de Abraham, ni nuestros momentos sublimes tan dramáticos como la Transfiguración, todos confrontamos los retos cotidianos de caminar “en presencia del Señor en el país de la vida”. Mientras seguimos nuestros diversos llamados a amar y servir, seamos confortados por lo que Pablo les recuerda a los romanos: “Si Dios está a nuestro favor, ¿quién estará en contra nuestra?” Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Building Faith Together Collections Now $886,245

$1,320,000 We have collected $886,245 on our pledges so far in our Building Faith Together campaign.

Save the Date for the Hunger Walk Saturday, June 20th, 2015

The Greater Chicago Food Depository is thrilled to announce that the 30th Annual Hunger Walk will take place June 20, 2015 at Soldier Field in Chicago.

Join us as we proclaim that No 1 Should Go Hungry in our community!

Please save the date on your calendars and look for more details in the coming months.

Food Pantry Shopping List

There are four items the Food Pantry could really use:

- Oatmeal
- Boxed Cereal (sweetened and unsweetened)
- Hearty Canned Soups
- Extra-strength grocery bags with handles

Urgent: Food Pantry Needs Thursday Drivers

St. Teresa's Food Pantry is urgently and immediately seeking three (3) new volunteers to join the Thursday Food Pick-up Team.

Every Thursday, a volunteer driver picks up our food order from the Greater Chicago Food Depository (near Midway airport) using a cargo van rented from the Home Depot (1232 W North Ave). Additional volunteers meet the driver at church to help unload the delivery van and arrange food into the pantry.

The driver pickup task runs roughly 9:00-11:00am. Ideally, we are seeking people who can drive once every 4-6 weeks, but we have flexibility in the ministry (e.g., winters off; summers off). Drivers choose their pickup dates based on their schedule via VolunteerSpot. Please consider if this ministry is a good fit for you. It is crucial to St. Teresa's social justice ministries.

Please contact Karen Breen Vogel at kbreenvogel@gmail.com to learn more or join us.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Food Pantry, please contact Karen Vogel, kbreenvogel@gmail.com or contact Dave Hilko at dahilko@deloitte.com.

Loaves & Fishes Shopping List

Our Loaves & Fishes team could really use the following three items for the preparation of their Friday evening meals:

- Flour
- Vegetable Oil
- Sugar

If you're interested in volunteering to either cook for Loaves & Fishes or serve our guests, contact Amir at amir@staying-true.com.

Parish Consultation: The Vocation and Mission of the Family in the Church

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has called together two synods or meetings of representative bishops from throughout the world to consider the family. The first synod took place last fall, and the second will take place this coming October. Our own Archbishop Cupich has been named as an alternate delegate to the synod.

As he prepares to offer a perspective to his fellow bishops in the United States and in turn to the Synod Office preparing for the November meeting in Rome, Archbishop Cupich wants to hear the voice of the people of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Consider using this brief survey to help him prepare for his work. Your pastor and parish staff will receive your comments and forward them to Archbishop Cupich.

The theme of the synod is the vocation and mission of the family in the Church and in the contemporary world. The hope of the synod is to make the “gospel of the family” come alive in our world. That means to understand and live family life in such a way that the family becomes a privileged place where we meet God and God meets us. It also means that the family assumes its holy mission in the world to bring new life in Jesus Christ to others. In the complexities of our world and of family life itself, this is no easy task.

Please share your reflections on these questions. The full documentation, called the Lineamenta or guidelines, along with discourses by Pope Francis and two articles, can be found at the archdiocesan website: www.archchicago.org.

Questionnaires can be dropped off at the parish office by March 8; the responses will be turned into the Archdiocese.

Seeking a Leader

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
