Parish Transformation Survey Update

Parish Transformation meetings begin on Wednesday, March 2nd at 7pm in the parish center. I encourage anyone interested to attend this initial meeting and further discern if you are being called to participate as part of the team.

227 people have filled out our survey. The survey will provide valuable data to the parish transformation team. We need input from ALL so that we can consider what we may need to do differently as a parish. If you have not already done so, please complete the survey on our website, st-teresa.net, or at surveymonkey.com/r/StTeresaAvila.

Please speak to Fr. Frank directly or contact the parish office for more information.

This Weekend is Welcoming Weekend!

The third weekend of each month is a welcoming weekend. Grab a nametag, and stop by the gathering space after any Mass and challenge yourself to talk to at least ONE person you've never met before.

Help us to live up to our reputation as a welcoming community! Reps from the Stewardship committee will be around to answer questions and help you connect more with opportunities at St. Teresa.

St. Teresa of Avila and GiveCentral.org are a perfect pair

ST. TERESA OF AVILA

- I feel I can trust you
- You make life better
- You're easy to work with
- I know what I can expect
- I can see a future with you give central

- Our SSL encryption standards mean your info is safe
- We make it easy to sign up and update or change your donation amounts. No drama!
- It's true. With us, giving is easy for donors, and better for parish staff with simple reporting and less cash counting.
- Parish finances suffer during vacation season, and when snowstorms and special events affect attendance. Sign up and maintain your support regardless of whether you make it to church.
- We hear that a lot. Give Central helps parish finance councils project annual budgets.

In 2015, our Give Central 100 campaign helped increase collections by 22%.
Just one more reason why we ♥ electronic giving!

Fiscal Year (07/1 - 6/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-teresa.net.
- The next Finance Council meeting is March 21st at 7:00 pm

Treasures from Our Tradition

The treasures of our tradition can often be traced to one source, but like the waters of a river branching out on its way to the sea, are received differently as they filter through various cultures and customs. Long ago, mostly because of the preparation of candidates for baptism, the annual feast of the Lord's death and resurrection was preceded by a period of preparation. In the West that comes to us as Lent, a word drawn from the Old English word for springtime, referring to the lengthening hours of sunlight in this hemisphere.

In the East, the tradition of preparing for Easter is received as "Great Lent," to distinguish it from a secondary "Lent" preceding Christmas, and a two-week period, a kind of "pre-Lent," that gradually introduces the faithful to the austerities of Great Lent. One of the major differences between East and West is in the vigor of the Lenten fast. In Great Lent the customs of fast and abstinence are far more strict than we are accustomed to. For us, meat is off our Lenten tables on Friday, but in the East, meat disappears from the diet completely, along with dairy products. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

La Cuaresma nos llama a la conversión, a la cual deberíamos estar dedicados toda el año. En muchas parroquias latinas la cuaresma también es tiempo de misiones. De niño recuerdo haber participado cada año en las misiones de mi parroquia. Escuchábamos a los predicadores con curiosidad, ya que aparecían solo una vez al año y luego se regresaban a lugares lejanos y desconocidos. Nunca imagine que algún día yo también estuviera como predicador de misiones. Me gustaría darles un resumen del mensaje que he sembrado en varias parroquias.

Las misiones no son para repetir doctrina, sino para evangelizar a los bautizados. Con cinco temas se puede evangelizar a los bautizados recordándoles los cinco puntos claves del Evangelio cristiano: 1) Dios nos ama y nos hizo para él; 2) Nosotros hemos pecado y sufrimos las consecuencias; 3) Dios nos manda a su Hijo para librarnos del mal; 4) Jesús desea formar parte de nuestras vidas personales, ¡invitémoslo! y 5) Jesús llena nuestro corazón con el poder y la presencia de su Espíritu. Este mensaje es uno de conversión y esperanza. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

We are to be transformed

Seremos Transformados

Today's showing forth of God's glory is filled with a light that astonishes and reveals. Jesus transfigured on Mount Tabor energizes even the sleepy apostles, who see but cannot get hold of it. They can be forgiven for not apprehending the full meaning of this extraordinary vision of a transfigured Jesus with Elijah and Moses. The whole of the Law and prophets is summed up here on this mountain.

The transfiguration on Mount Tabor is handed over to us this Sunday. As Paul reminds us, it is we who are to be transformed. The light and life of the Resurrection are set forth here so we do not lose heart and fall entirely asleep. This Sunday looks to Easter. It looks to transformation. It asks us to lift up our heads and acknowledge the risen Lord as our light and our salvation. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

La manifestación de la Gloria de Dios en el Evangelio de hoy está llena de una luz que a la vez asombra y revela. Jesús, transfigurado en el Monte Tabor, llena de su energía a los apóstoles adormecidos, que ven la visión, pero no la saben captar. Es perdonable que no captan del todo el significado de esta extraordinaria visión de Jesús transfigurado, entre Moisés y Elías. Aquí, en el monte santo, se resumen la Ley y los profetas.

Hoy esa transfiguración se nos ofrece y se nos entrega. Como nos recuerda san Pablo, somos nosotros los que vamos a ser transformados. Hoy se nos presentan la luz y la vida de la Resurrección, para que no nos descorazonemos, no sea que nos quedemos del todo dormidos. Este domingo ya mira hacia la Pascua. Mira hacia la transformación. Nos pide que levantemos la cabeza, y reconozcamos al Señor Resucitado como nuestra luz y salvación. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Is Your Prayer Life on Autopilot?

Then seize the moment and try two new ways to pray this Lent: Praying with Scripture: Lectio Divina on Tuesdays. Come to church at either 8:00 am or 6:30 pm to learn how to meditate on Scripture.

Praying in Silence: Centering Prayer on Tuesdays. Come to church at 12:00 pm on Tuesdays to learn how to quiet the mind and learn this ancient form of contemplative prayer.

For more information email Kate Lynch at kolynchdre@gmail.com

Lectio Divina Process

1. Read — Take your time and read the passage. Read the passage a second time. Listen for words or phrases that strike you, and listen in your heart. What does the text say that everyone should understand?

2. Think — Read the passage again, slowly. Take your time to consider what words or phrases strike you. What does the text say to me, today, and to my life?

3. Pray — Read the passage again, slowly. Consider now how God has spoken to you and respond back to Him. What can I say to the Lord in response to His word? What conversion of the mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

4. Rest — Now take some time to simply remain in the presence of God.

Prayer

February 21 — February 27

Our Prayer of Mission

We face the world filled with Gospel hope and joy.

We gaze on the world and all humanity, with Mary, Agnes, Elizabeth of Hungary, and Teresa of Avila – a gaze of love...God's love.

This God, who is love, sends us out into the world as missionary disciples, filled with the Word, as it takes root in our hearts, and the Eucharist, which nourishes our souls so that we may draw others, by our words and actions, to Christ and His Church.

As the assembly, we sit on the shell of Baptism, etched in our floor...we are "poured out" into the world... filled with the spirit of Baptism... sharing in the priesthood of Christ.

May our hands be the hands of Christ's healing touch.

May our feet walk the way of the Gospel by washing the feet of broken humanity.

May our ears hear the cry of the poor and lonely.

May our eyes gaze on every human being with love.

We leave here giving praise to the God of all creation, encountering God in all creation, as people on a mission to build bridges in the human family...furthering the first gift that Christ breathed on His Church...peace.

Amen.

Wedding Vow Renewals a Hit!

More than 30 couples attended the 2016 renewal of wedding vows ceremony on Saturday, February 13th at the 5:00 pm Mass.

"The couples varied in the length of their marriages...from two to 30 years, with lots in between," says Mark Buciak this year's event coordinator, "and most couples stopped after Mass for refreshments. You could tell by the smiles on their faces that they really enjoyed it."

"Love was in the air! You could see it everywhere!" Fr. Chas Shelby, CM, leads 30 couples in a marriage vow renewal ceremony at the 5:00 pm Mass on February 13th.

Ministry of Care

The Ministry of Care program at St. Teresa of Avila brings the Eucharist to the faithful who are unable to attend church.

If you know of someone who cannot come to Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, please contact Dean in the office at (773) 528-6650 or dvaeth@stteresaparish.org to arrange a visit.

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
