Such Talent at St. Teresa's!

These parishioners are using their unique personal talents in service:

Jose Cervantes: Chef and owner of Healthy Organic Kids is using his kitchen skills to prepare meals for the Night Ministry. Jose picks the menu, shops for ingredients and works with the volunteer cooks to prepare the meal served to those in need. Plus, the volunteers get their own cooking lesson from the chef!

Kerry O'Brien: Carpenter and owner of Kiwi Carpenters, Ltd is using his woodworking skills to build coat racks for the parish center.

Janet Summins: Seamstress extraordinaire noticed the liners of our collection baskets looked a little worn so she offered to make us new ones. Janet also volunteers her time to maintain our website.

If you'd like to discuss how you can put your gifts to work at St. Teresa's, give me a call or an email. I'm always happy to meet up and chat about how you can find your best volunteer fit.

New Night Ministry Dates

Our partnership with the Night Ministry continues to grow. New dates have been scheduled and volunteers can sign up at vols.pt/d6ABZj. There are three ways to help within this ministry:

Cook: Join Chef Jose and the other volunteers to prepare the meal.

Serve: Take the food on the road to the uptown location and serve those on the streets.

Contribute: Bake cookies to be served with the meal.

For additional questions, email Rebecca at robrien@stteresaparish.org.

Refugee Ministry

Many thanks to Brother Joe from Catholic Charities for joining us last week to talk about the importance of helping our Refugee brothers and sisters in Christ. We are excited to begin our own refugee ministry here at St. Teresa Parish.

Are you interested in getting involved? Fr. Frank would like to meet with an interested group of parishioners to discuss how we will support this ministry.

If you are interested in learning more about how you can help, email Rebecca at robrien@stteresaparish.org, or speak to Fr. Frank.

To donate to this ministry visit: givecentral.org/location/209/10945.

New Volunteer Role

Our Loaves & Fishes ministry serves a hot meal every Friday night to those in need. Volunteers, families or groups, are needed to host a "social hour" for our guests, before the meal starts. Duties include making coffee, bringing light snacks, and mingling with the guests.

For more information about Loaves & Fishes volunteer opportunities, email Amir at amir@staying-true.com.

Visit st-teresa.net/volunteer to browse and sign up for a selection of recurring volunteer opportunities.

Fiscal Year (07/1 - 6/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-teresa.net.
- The next Finance Council meeting is March 21st at 7:00 pm

Treasures from Our Tradition

One of the first steps to a Catholic wedding takes place in the parish rectory, as the newly engaged come forward to “set a date.” We owe this scenario to reforms made by the emperor Charlemagne late in the eighth century. He required that nobles and commoners alike have public weddings, and also required that marrying couples be examined for factors that would block a marriage, such as previous marriages or close kinship. The pope was more conservative, however, and resisted the emperor’s creativity. It was enough for the pope that the couples exchange consent.

That tradition is passed on to this day, to some couples’ surprise. In 866, Pope Nicholas ruled that a marriage was legal and binding even without a liturgy or public celebration. After that, it was the consent of the couple, not the blessing of parents or priest, that made a marriage “count.” If consent was lacking, such as through abduction or fear, then the marriage could not “take.” Charlemagne got a great deal done, but he was a political flash in the pan, and the empire had virtually collapsed by the year 1000. Europe broke into a checkerboard of princedoms and languages, and at last all marriages came under the church, the glue holding the known world together. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Cuaresma es tiempo de reconciliación por medio del perdón. En este espíritu, el Papa san Juan Pablo II pidió perdón por pecados cometidos por la Iglesia. Uno de estos pecados es la manera como América fue cristianizada.

La relación del latino con la religión católica ha sido entre buenas intenciones y antagonismos. Gracias a Dios, ¡somos cristianos! Lamentablemente, nuestro bautizo, en la mayor parte de los casos, fue en agua bendita y sangre indígena a la vez, ya que América fue evangelizada con cruz y espada. Los pobres misioneros que con fatiga, predicaron en nuestras tierras venían acompañados por hombres poderosos en busca de riquezas.

El filósofo romano-español Séneca (siglo I) afirmaba: "la religión es algo que para la persona común es verdad, para el sabio es falso y para el poderoso es útil". A su vez, el romano-judío Pablo de Tarso declara que en Cristo, Dios ha revelado que la persona común y necia derribará la falsedad de los sabios (1 Cor 1:18-31).

El latino creyente reconoce que su fe nació del dolor de la conquista y no niega los abusos clericales, pero confía en el Evangelio reconciliador. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

A Sunday for Rejoicing

Today's Gospel story of the prodigal son is a favorite of many. We can identify with all the major figures and their crisscross of emotions. The father's initial grief over his young son's avarice is turned to relief at his return. The son's grief over his loss of fortune, family, and friends is turned to delirious joy at the sight of his father.

We understand the eldest son's bewilderment over his father's generosity. For the older son, virtue seems not to be its own reward. For all his honorable toil and loyalty, there seems to be no celebration. The father, however, is prodigal in his forgiveness and mercy. He expects the same generosity from his older son. He wants all to rejoice when the lost one is found.

This is a Sunday for rejoicing. It's time to pause, consider, and encourage one another. We are the prodigal children heading home. We are the elder siblings waiting with the eager Father, who scans the horizon. In Christ Jesus we are reconciled to the Father and one another. In his death and resurrection we have passed over. We are a new creation. In this we rejoice. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Un Domingo Para Alargarse

Pocas parábolas del Evangelio son tan queridas por el pueblo cristiano como la del hijo pródigo. Nos podemos identificar con todos sus personajes, y con las emociones que se entrecruzan entre ellos. El dolor del padre por la avaricia y desconsideración de su hijo se convierte en alegría al verlo regresar. El dolor del hijo por haber perdido todo lo que tenía — dinero, familia, amigos — se convierte en alegría delirante al ver como su padre lo recibe.

Pero también comprendemos el desconcierto del hijo mayor ante la generosidad de su padre. Para el hijo mayor, la virtud no es su propia recompensa. Ha trabajado duro, y ha sido un hijo leal, pero eso no se celebra con fiestas ni banquetes. Pero su padre es un padre pródigo, y prodiga su perdón y su misericordia. Y espera que su hijo mayor tenga esa misma generosidad. Quiere que todos se regocijen porque el que estaba perdido ha sido hallado.

Este es un domingo para alegrarse. Es día de hacer una pausa, y de considerarnos y alentarnos unos a otros. Porque todos somos hijos pródigos, en el camino de regreso al hogar de nuestro padre. Y debemos también ser hermanos mayores, pero hermanos mayores que esperan junto con el padre ansioso, mientras vislumbra el horizonte. En Cristo Jesús nos vemos reconciliados, con Dios Padre, y con

Celebrate with Our Children on March 13th

St. Teresa's next Children's Participation Mass is Sunday, March 13th at 9:00 am. All children are invited to participate and celebrate in community. Consider choir, ushering, or gift bearing.

Contact Kate Lynch at (773) 528-6650 or kolynchdre@gmail.com in advance to learn more or indicate interest or come early that day (8:40 am) to join choir practice or find other ways to help.

Food Pantry Shopping List

There are five items the Food Pantry could really use:

- Pasta & rice (all kinds)
- Oatmeal
- Boxed cereal
- Hearty canned soups
- Regular- and family-size deodorant & shampoo; tooth-brushes & toothpaste

We no longer need extra-strength grocery bags.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Food Pantry, contact Dave Hilko at dahilko@deloitte.com.

Friday Morning Playgroup Forming

A new baby-toddler playgroup is forming at St. Teresa of Avila.

Lenten Regulations

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years old and older on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays in Lent.

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday by all Catholics 18 years old but not yet 59. Those who are bound by this may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid food between meals is not permitted.

The Paschal fast, as well as abstinence, are prescribed for Good Friday and encouraged for Holy Saturday.

Regulaciones de Cuaresma

La abstinencia de carne es para ser observado por todos los católicos de 14 años o mayores en el Miércoles de Ceniza y todos los viernes de Cuaresma.

El ayuno es para ser observado el miércoles de ceniza por todos los católicos de 18 años, pero aún no 59. Los que están obligados por la presente puede tomar sólo una comida completa. Dos comidas más pequeñas se permiten si es necesario para mantener la fuerza de acuerdo a las necesidades de uno, pero comer alimentos sólidos entre comidas no está permitido.

El ayuno, así como la abstinencia Pascual, se prescriben para el Viernes Santo y alentó para el

Is Your Prayer Life on Autopilot?

Then seize the moment and try two new ways to pray this Lent: Praying with Scripture: Lectio Divina on Tuesdays. Come to church at either 8:00 am or 6:30 pm to learn how to meditate on Scripture.

Praying in Silence: Centering Prayer on Tuesdays. Come to church at 12:00 pm on Tuesdays to learn how to quiet the mind and learn this ancient form of contemplative prayer.

For more information email Kate Lynch at kolynchdre@gmail.com

Ministry of Care

The Ministry of Care program at St. Teresa of Avila brings the Eucharist to the faithful who are unable to attend church.

If you know of someone who cannot come to Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, please contact Dean in the office at (773) 528-6650 or dvaeth@sttereseparish.org to arrange a visit.

Sign up for online giving at

GiveCentral

for your weekly offertory and other donations!

Three reasons to sign up:

1. Give Central is completely safe and secure as it follows SSL encryption standards.
2. It's easy to sign up, update throughout the year, and review your gifts as often as you like.
3. You can make your gifts through most credit cards or online checking.

Living Stations on Good Friday

Experience the Passion of Christ through live interpretation. This annual event will be held on Good Friday at 3:00 pm and all are welcome.

We are also looking for some additional "actors" to help (children and adults). Every year, we have parishioners read each station while the costumed actors interpret the station with no movement. It is a very beautiful and minimal way of interpreting the story of Christ's passion.

If you are interested in participating this year, please contact Carrie Mondschean at (312) 320-1160 or cmondschean@hinshawlaw.com, or Kristen Castelloni at (773) 710-0068 or krisen@rlcanning.com.

There will be two rehearsals - on Wednesday, March 23rd at 7:00 pm and a mandatory dress rehearsal will begin at 1:00 pm sharp on March 25th prior to the Stations.

Loaves & Fishes Shopping List

Our Loaves & Fishes team could really use the following three items, especially flour, for the preparation of their Friday evening meals:

- Flour
- Vegetable Oil
- Sugar

If you're interested in volunteering to either cook for Loaves & Fishes or serve our guests, contact Amir at amir@staying-true.com.

Our Prayer of Mission

We face the world filled with Gospel hope and joy.

We gaze on the world and all humanity, with Mary, Agnes, Elizabeth of Hungary, and Teresa of Avila – a gaze of love...God's love.

This God, who is love, sends us out into the world as missionary disciples, filled with the Word, as it takes root in our hearts, and the Eucharist, which nourishes our souls so that we may draw others, by our words and actions, to Christ and His Church.

As the assembly, we sit on the shell of Baptism, etched in our floor...we are "poured out" into the world... filled with the spirit of Baptism... sharing in the priesthood of Christ.

May our hands be the hands of Christ's healing touch.

May our feet walk the way of the Gospel by washing the feet of broken humanity.

May our ears hear the cry of the poor and lonely.

May our eyes gaze on every human being with love.

We leave here giving praise to the God of all creation, encountering God in all creation, as people on a mission to build bridges in the human family...furthering the first gift that Christ breathed on His Church...peace.

Amen.

Seeking a Leader

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Dealing with Stress...

The Holbrook Center, a service of Catholic Charities, provides confidential counseling at many locations, including its newest office at Holy Name Cathedral. Licensed counselors, affordable fees, and convenient appointment times, including evenings.

The Holbrook Counseling Center is in the network with BC/BS PPO. For more information or to schedule an appointment, please call at (312) 655-7725.
