Check In With Your Current Activities!

September is a great time to check in with your current activities, including your involvement in your faith community. Take some time this month to consider your own personal stewardship journey. Stewardship is a way of life in which we recognize that all we have is a gift from God, and we gratefully give back with joy from what we have been given. There are nearly 40 ministries at St. Teresa of Avila, and plenty of ways to get involved. See below for a list of upcoming and recurring volunteer opportunities. If you'd like to discuss how you can use your talents in service, give me a call or an email. I'm always happy to meet for a coffee or chat by phone.

Fiscal Year (07/1 - 6/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income versus expense. Total income includes Sunday, Christmas and Easter collections, fundraising and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the goal of the Finance Council and Fr. Frank to increase weekly giving to meet ongoing expenses and to use the proceeds from fundraisers for special initiatives and outreach programs.
- Please contact our Business Manager, Maggie Fernandez, with any questions at mfernandez@sttereseparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair, at mtonner19199@gmail.com.
- The next Finance Council meeting is Monday, September 26th, at 7:00 pm.

Interested in the Catholic Faith?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which interested adults are introduced to the Roman Catholic faith and way of life.

The RCIA process is for the un-baptized who want to join the Catholic Church; and those who have been baptized Catholic or in another Christian denomination, and want to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, please contact Fr. Frank at (773) 528-6650.

Treasures from Tradition

We've been thinking about names lately, and there is hardly any tradition older than changing one's name when accepting a new vocation in life. In the time of Jesus, people would normally wait until the eighth day after birth for the naming of a child, partly because of the fragility of infant life, when the eighth day would mark the end of a survival crisis, and also because the elders would look for some clues as to the child's identity. In Jewish life then as now, it was not the custom to name a child after a living parent; notice there are no "juniors" in the genealogy of Jesus. Remember also how the relatives complained to Zachary and Elizabeth that no one in their family was ever named John. Then there are the changed names, Abram became Abraham, Sarai became Sarah, Saul became Paul, Simon became Peter. This spills over into Western culture in many ways, such as British royalty taking new names at coronation. It's anybody's guess, for example, whether the Prince of Wales intends to be King Charles II, or become Henry, or Edward, or George if he wishes.

Members of religious orders have until recent years swapped baptismal names for new ones, and the latest pope made a switch as well. Secular life has many parallels, and movie stars like Cary Grant, Judy Garland, and John Wayne might not have shone so brightly as Archie Leach, Frances Gumm, and Marion Morrison. There are some compelling reasons in our tradition for taking a new name when undertaking a new mission, yet also a clear preference for choosing the right baptismal name from the start!

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

La última mitad del siglo pasado, nuestro continente vio el derrame de muchísima sangre cristiana. No podemos olvidar la sangre de quienes dieron la vida por el Evangelio de la justicia: Michel Quiroga evangelizador colombiano; Agustina Rivas monjita peruana; Vicente Matute líder indígena hondureño; Marlene Kegler una universitaria de 23 años argentina. Estos son algunos ejemplos de tantos que murieron creyendo que la doctrina cristiana no se puede contener en templos y conventos. Dieron la vida por querer vivir su fe en situaciones de discriminación e injusticia. Derramando su sangre se convirtieron en ángeles de justicia que gritan a Dios uniendo sus voces a la de Abel.

Todos estos mártires latinoamericanos murieron a manos de latinoamericanos. Dieron sus vidas, según la mártir chilena Joan Alsina, como granos de trigo. Y desde el cielo ella nos pide: "Esperamos tu solidaridad. ¿Entiendes ahora lo que significa el Cuerpo de Cristo? Si nosotros nos hundimos es algo de tu esperanza la que se hunde. Pero si de las cenizas asumimos la vida de nuevo, es algo que nace de nuevo en ustedes." — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz,

Looking Beyond Ourselves

The message found in today's readings is an oft-told story. Citizen Kane, Daddy Warbucks, and King Midas are only a few of the familiar fictional characters who thought enormous wealth could buy happiness and fulfillment. Daddy Warbucks admitted stepping on a few people in his climb to the top. Kane tried to buy the printed word and stardom for his young wife, while King Midas conjured immense wealth and tragedy by his very touch.

We learn clearly in today's readings that none of this is really possible. True happiness comes from caring for someone other than ourselves. It comes from the pursuit of the virtues Paul described to Timothy: faith, love, gentleness, godliness, righteousness, and endurance. The Gospel reminds us that we dare not ignore the needs of others, acting as though we don't notice their suffering. God's call to us is much too clear to disregard for even one more day. ## Mirar Más Allá de Nosotros Mismos

El mensaje de las lecturas de hoy es una vieja historia. El Ciudadano Kane, Papi Warbucks y el Rey Midas son sólo unos pocos de los familiares personajes ficticios que pensaban que con una enorme fortuna podrían comprar la felicidad y la completa satisfacción. Papi Warbucks admite haber pisoteado a algunas personas en su ascenso a la cumbre. Kane trató de comprar la palabra impresa y el estrellato para su joven esposa, mientras que el Rey Midas conjura inmensa fortuna y tragedia sólo con su toque.

Aprendemos claramente en las lecturas de hoy que nada de esto es posible. Alcanzamos la verdadera felicidad cuando nos interesamos en los demás. Cuando practicamos las virtudes que Dios describe a Timoteo: fe, amor, mansedumbre, piedad, rectitud y justicia. El Evangelio nos recuerda que no osemos ignorar las necesidades de los demás, actuando como si no notáramos su sufrimiento. El llamado de Dios a nosotros es demasiado claro para ignorarlo ni un solo día más. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Children's Participation Mass Schedule

St. Teresa parish holds monthly 9:00 am Children's Participation Masses during the school year to invite and encourage all parish families — those in our catechesis programs, as well as those who aren't — to elevate the role of children and families in the Mass. All children are invited to help as greeters, collection basket ushers, gift bearers, or altar helpers at these masses. Children in 3rd grade and up can serve as lectors upon receiving preparation.

This year's schedule of Children's Masses is: October 2; November 6; December 11; February 12; March 12; April 2; April 30 (at 12:00 pm); and May 14.

To RSVP for a certain task, indicate lectoring interest, or receive monthly reminders, please email Kate Lynch klynch@stteresaparish.org.

Four Catechists Still Needed

Thank you to those who have responded to our need for new catechists. We have 9 new people who are both training and serving as a catechist! This is an amazing response!!

We still need of four new catechists who can serve on either Mondays or Tuesdays, 4:00-5:30 pm, working in either Level II (1st-3rd grade) or Level III (4th-6th grade).

If you have flexibility in your work or daily life two to three days per school month, you can offer a valuable fit for St. Teresa's children and families.

Please reach out to Kate Lynch, Director of Religious Education, at kolynchdre@gmail.com to learn more, ask questions, or set up a time for observation.

Children's Liturgy Needs Leaders

We're seeking new leaders for Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) at 9:00 am Mass. CLOW offers children the opportunity to listen to the Word of God and reflect on it in ways that are more directly meaningful to them.

Leaders ideally serve once every six weeks during the school year on their schedule; we provide orientation, a guide book, and support as needed.

For more information, contact Kate Lynch at kolynchdre@gmail.com

We meet on Tuesday evenings only 12 times each semester, six of these meetings are with our friends called Total Community and six of the meetings are with only the catechists called our Prep Sessions which prepare us for Total Community.

On Earth as in Heaven

I have had the great opportunity in my life to wander the streets of Rome, enjoying its glory and standing in awe of its architecture and history. Yet for all its wonder, poverty is around every corner. That poverty is really brought home when a mother sits on a corner begging for money with a sad and hungry child in her arms. I saw a similar circumstance on the streets of Chicago when I was younger, with a woman huddling in the storefront with her little child on her lap. I remember looking around at the businessmen in suits, holding their Chicago Tribunes under their arms and walking by as quickly as they could. I didn't have any money at the time, but that image has long stuck with me. It calls to mind images of Mary holding Jesus.

It's hard to reconcile the wealth within the walls of Rome, or whatever city you call your home, with the poverty right outside the doors. Pope Francis and many others have sought to respond to the plight of the poor. Francis said, "In all places and circumstances, Christians, with the help of their pastors, are called to hear the cry of the poor" ("The Joy of the Gospel" #191).

Isn't it the American dream to have it all? Wealth, power, prestige ... There are people sitting on gold mines, while others sit in the streets, wishing some of the wealth would fall like refreshing rain. We have prophetic voices now that are ignored by the very people who need to listen. What will it take to open our ears and hearts?

The scripture story tells us Lazarus was rewarded in heaven while the rich man suffered on the other side of the chasm.

It's difficult not to want the lifestyle of the rich man when you are like Lazarus begging for scraps. The scripture story tells us Lazarus was rewarded in heaven while the rich man suffered on the other side of the chasm. It seems, too, that between issues of wealth, race, sexual orientation and many others, the chasms are very much a part of our daily lives. We are all divided in so many ways. The divisions may be for protection, as the chasm in the scripture story keeps people from crossing over between heaven and hell. Yet other chasms keep us so broken.

Lazarus has finally found comfort in the bosom of Abraham in the next life. The rich man learns he has already reaped his reward on earth. The rich man seems so selfish in this scripture. Part of me tries to find a redeeming quality in the fact that the rich man wants to warn his five brothers to change before it's too late. Yet Abraham points out that the brothers heard the same prophets as the rich man and they haven't listened. No person returning from the dead would change their minds.

"The Lord raises up those who were bowed down." Psalm 146, sung this Sunday, resonates with images similar to those found in the Canticum of Mary: "He has thrown down the rulers from their thrones but lifted up the lowly. The hungry he has filled with good things; the rich he has sent away empty" (Luke 1:52-53). Mary's hymn of praise reminds us, as does Psalm 146, that the Lord, the Mighty One, remembers the promises made to the children of Abraham.

Where do you hear the cry of the poor today? What messengers do we ignore? God has sent us prophets for our time who implore us to heed the message. Yet we ignore the mother huddling on the street with her baby in her arms. God prepares a banquet for us in heaven, but we need to help those around us meet even their basic needs. What will you do to make sure you end up on the right side of the chasm?

Seeking a Leader

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
